'Providing fast, reliable service'

Antioch Rescue Squad full-timers working out, but downfall is they're costing $90,000 more

ALEC JUNG

Staff Reporter

The chief of the Antioch Rescue Squad spoke highly of how well things were going with the hiring of two full-time employees.

Chief Timothy Osmond said two full-timers from Metropolitan Ambulance Services have provided excellent service and assured quick response to calls from 5 a.m.-5 p.m. on weekdays.

"They are providing, fast, reliable service," Osmond said.

Osmond added the service allows the squad the ability to answer multiple calls during the day when it's most difficult to find volunteers.

He noted there have been times the squad has been able to respond to three calls at once.

An added benefit is being able to take a volunteer along to a call, and if it's not serious, have one of the volunteers go with the one Metro member to the hospital while the other stays back at the station.

The squad made the decision about a month ago to hire full-time people during the weekday hours. The cost is expected to be $90,000 a year.

The squad budgeted $86,000 and expects to make the rest of the funds by charging non-residents for services. The charges are based on what neighboring communities such as Fox Lake and Lake Villa are charging.

Osmond said he has received good comments about the Metro employees.

"They have done a nice job. There have been no problems," Osmond said.

While Antioch has the full-timers, volunteers still man the calls during the weekends.

Antioch was the last rescue squad in Lake County to have an all-volunteer department.

The only downfall is in the budget, according to Osmond.

"We have to set aside $90,000 for payroll. That is money that could have gone for new equipment," Osmond said.

Lots of broken ice on lakes

'It was weird' says resident caught up in assisting snowmobile rescues

JEFF PATERSON

Staff Reporter

With inches of fresh snow the night before and spring definitely on its way, it was a busy day on the local lakes for snowmobilers on Feb. 16.

One of the busiest people on the lake that day might well have been Jamie Stancil, 26, of 24251 Bayview Dr. in Antioch, who spent much of the afternoon assisting with snowmobile rescues.

For Stancil, who was also snowmobiling that day, the hectic activity began between 2 and 3 p.m. while he was in Y-Not At the Sand Bar, located on 40870 N. Douglas Ave. in Antioch, near the channel between Lake Marie and Bluff Lake.

"I was in the bar with a friend, and looking out the window, we saw a snowmobile coming toward open water and we said 'they're going to go in, there's no way they're going to make it' Stancil said.

Snowflake aims to help children make wise choices

District 34 students learned more about self esteem and positive choices at the school's Snowflake.

The anti-drug and anti-gang seminar was attended by 95 seventh- and eighth-graders, according to Katie Lindberg, school counselor.

"It's really about self-esteem and making wise choices," Lindberg said.

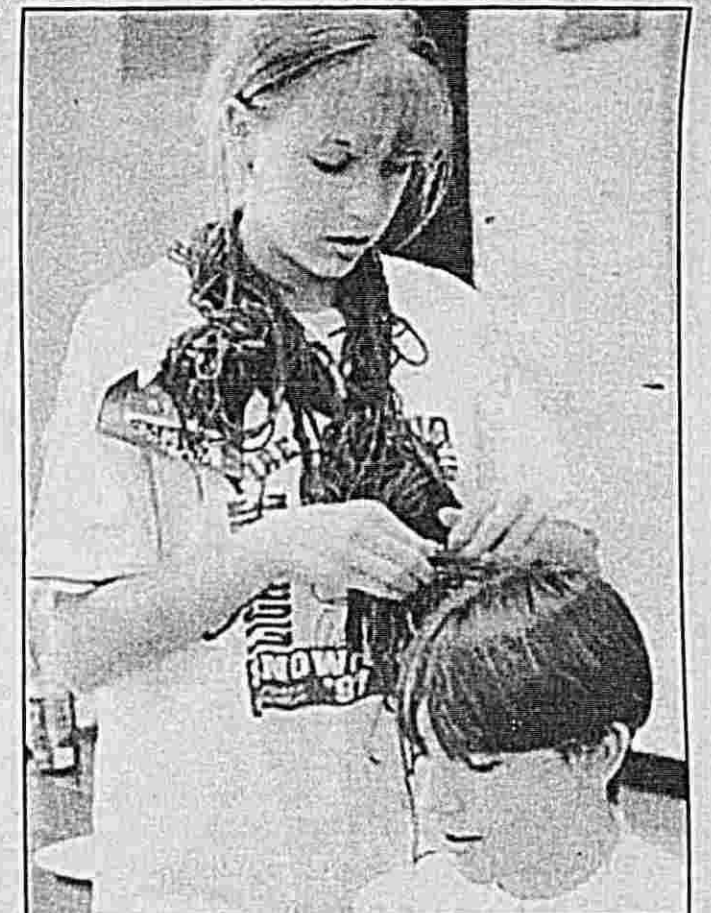

This year, students listened to motivational speakers Mitch Anthony and Ed Slowkowski a top track athlete at Loyola University in Chicago.

To make this all happen, there were 27 community volunteers who pitched and assisted with the event.

They also discuss how making the wrong choices such as early drug, alcohol use or gang involvement can lead them on a negative path.

The theme this year is "Light the Fires of Imagination."

The event is entirely voluntary on the student's part as well. It was held on an off day at the school.

Residents can meet candidates

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

To find out more about who is running for Antioch Township office, there is no better place to be than a candidate forum on Feb. 27.

Antioch Chamber of Commerce & Industry is sponsoring the event. All 12 township candidates will be on hand, according to Karen Dunham, of the chamber.

"They all were agreeable and will at least stay for a while," Dunham said.

The forum will be held in the Community Development building in the Mapletown Room at 7:30 a.m.

The event is free and the public is invited.

There will be a continental breakfast followed by a short business update by President Ed Cimaglio.

It will be followed by short speeches from all the candidates.

"All the candidates will have an opportunity to introduce themselves. There will be time for a question and answer session," Dunham noted.

She added not all the candidates will be able to stay for the question and answer segment.

Expected to appear are: supervisor candidates Township Trustee Timothy Osmond and activist Carole Jonites, trustee candidates incumbents Judith Davis and Claudette Skvarce, newcomers Ardeen Harris, Steven Smouse, Ray Sackschewsky, and Wanda Schaefer.

Assessor candidates Heather Kufalk-Marotta and Michael Mueller are slated to appear. Also expected in attendance will be Highway Commissioner Mark Ring and clerk candidate Kathleen Smith.

Court takes no action in train whistle case

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

Plaintiffs seeking an end to train whistle blowing in Antioch are still waiting for the courts to rule.

The seven plaintiffs filed a lawsuit in October in Lake County court seeking a court injunction on whistle blowing. They sued the village, Metra and Wisconsin Central. The village was successful in filing a motion to dismiss in January.

On Feb. 13, a ruling was to be made for the two railroads' motion to dismiss. The judge did not rule at that time and will have the parties in court April 6.

"The judge (Emilo Santi) took it under advisement," said Bill Tuttle, legal counsel for Wisconsin Central.

Santi heard oral arguments from both sides and is expected to rule on the motion to dismiss at the next appearance, according to Dave Duggan, attorney for the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs claim the train whistles aren't necessary because all of the village's train crossings have automatic gates. They feel the horns are an unnecessary intrusion.

Wisconsin Central officials maintain the horns are needed for safety. They point to a 1995 study by the National Railroad Administration, which documents decreased vehicle and train collisions at intersections where whistle bans were lifted.

The plaintiffs contend communities such as Barrington and Lake Forest have whistle bans and haven't had an increase in accidents.

The plaintiffs eventually hope for an injunction until they can lobby for the federal approval for a permanent whistle ban.

Not related to this case, there was discussion on a night whistle ban from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. for communities along the North Central Service line. So far, Round Lake Beach, by a 4-3 vote has asked Wisconsin Central not to blare their horns unless there is an emergency.

Other villages, such as Lake Villa and Antioch, are expected not to seek the ban because of liability concerns.

Meanwhile, the village is attempting to get its money back from the plaintiffs for their court costs.

Residents, business compromise

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

The owners of ERA State Line Realty worked with residents in a neighboring subdivision to come up with a plan that all could be satisfied with.

The original plan called for the building facing Route 83 and the parking lot facing the Antioch Hills subdivision. Residents objected at a January plan commission hearing and plans were modified.

Andrew and Marcia Banike came back with a plan that had the parking lot facing Route 83 and the 5,000-square-foot office abutting the residences.

"Both sides worked together to come to an agreement," said Mayor Marilyn Shineflug.

The office will be located on a driveway off Park Terrace and Route 83. It will be adjacent to an existing home.

Zoning Officer Bob Silhan said one of the conditions in the agreement requires the company widen Park Terrace to 22 feet to Route 83.

Silhan said one of the reasons the plans were changed is because residents wanted another access to the business should people miss the first one. That way they wouldn't have to drive through the subdivision to turn around.

Because the site plan was changed, the company had to revise plan and zone it Business-1 instead of Residential-1.

Trustees approved having the village attorney draft an ordinance with the rezoning.

If the plan is formally adopted, the business must be established in two years or the village can hold another hearing to zone the property back to residential.

Trustees continue downtown work

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

Antioch trustees approved starting the engineering work for downtown improvements.

Trustees have already bonded $550,000 for the project. It will include curb and gutter work, underground wiring, road overlay and added streetlights, according to Mayor Marilyn Shineflug.

"We need to approve this if we want to keep on target," Shineflug said.

Consulting Engineer John Boldt will provide more detailed plans for the project at the April 7 meeting. He needed the village approval to continue the planning process.

The rehab work will be on Main Street from Orchard to Park Street.

The concept is to improve the appearance and upgrade the infrastructure at the same time.

The village also is working with the businesses for parking lot resurfacing. The village is hopeful businesses will do some work themselves and join with the village on this downtown facelift.

Trustees asked if they were approving the entire project now. Shineflug explained they still have control of the costs and reminded trustees the bond amount also limits the spending.

"We are limited by the bond amount," Shineflug said.

The board is expected to start the meeting earlier to discuss the proposal. The Development and Redevelopment Commissions will be also be invited to participate.

Petty students saving trees by making recycling a habit

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

WC Petty students are getting into recycling and doing their part to reuse and spare resources.

Programs include paper recycling, and an education program geared at saving more resources.

Recycling at W.C. Petty dates back to 1987 when fifth-grade classes began collecting paper. The monthly totals were at about 400 pounds. Then the totals soared to 250 pounds a week.

Students collected an estimated 8,200 pounds of paper during the 1996 school year.

"W.C. Petty School students are obviously doing a great job of recycling their paper and saving a bit of the forest in the process," said Monica Duebbert, of public information officer of Solid Waste Agency of Lake County (SWALCO).

Petty students earned an earth flag for their recycling efforts.

Students not only recycled the curriculum was geared to emphasize important facts and recycling.

Some facts learned include: it takes a 15-year-old tree to make 700 grocery bags, 120 pounds of newsprint is the equivalent of one tree, the average American uses 580 pounds of paper a year and the average American uses the equivalent of seven trees each year.

On the positive side, when you recycled one ton of paper, it saves 17 trees, 7,000 gallons of water, 3 cubic yards of landfill space, 4,100 kilowatts of energy, and 60 pounds of air pollutants.

Using these averages, Petty students saved 48 trees, 28,000 gallons of water, 12 cubic yards of landfill space, 16,400 kilowatts and 240 pounds of air pollutants.

In addition to paper, the Petty students are also recycling brown paper tape, aluminum cans, steel cans, tin cans and glass containers.

Students to learn leadership

The Rotary Club of Antioch in conjunction with the Rotary Youth Leadership Program (RYLA) of Rotary International District 6440 is sponsoring a three day leadership conference on April 3 through 6. Two Antioch Community High School students have been awarded all expense paid scholarships to this event. They are Amy Vanderkooy and Danielle Evers.

Through the RYLA program, Rotary publicly recognizes the high qualities of these students, who are rendering service to their community through the school and other organizations as youth leaders. In addition, the RYLA program serves to encourage and assist youths in the methods of responsible and effective leadership by providing them with a training experience.

Vanderkooy and Evers will attend the leadership program at Camp Edwards in East Troy, Wis. The conference will include various activities including lectures, group discussions, leadership workshops and selected recreational and social activities. The conference will be conducted by local Rotarians and professionals in the community along with the staff at Camp Edwards.

Antioch Rotary Youth Services Officer, Stan Livermore, announced that Vanderkooy and Evers were selected through a competitive essay writing contest.

Two fires started by accident

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

A fire in Lindenhurst caused massive destruction to an apartment unit, while another fire damaged a garage and attic of a home.

Both fires were started by accidents. The most severe was the fire at a Mallard Ridge Apartment Feb. 12.

By the time Lake Villa Township Fire Department and Lindenhurst police arrived, there was a heavy black smoke coming from the apartment, according to police reports.

The occupant of the apartment reportedly told police she fell asleep on the couch while smoking a cigarette. When she woke up, she found her apartment was on fire.

She tried to put out the fire herself but was unable to.

Police reports indicated the apartment damage was so severe, it might not be able to be repaired.

Firefighters were able to contain the blaze to the one apartment unit.

On Feb. 15, a home was damaged at 526 Forest View.

The owner of the house reportedly told police he was working on a motorcycle when gas spilled and caught fire when the gas came in contact with a kerosene heater.

Police reported seeing a heavy black smoke, but were able to extinguish the flames before they reached the living area of the home.

The garage and part of the area were damaged by the blaze.

There was no cost estimate given of the damage. Fire officials told police the investigation is closed and the fire was considered accidental.

No one was injured in either fire.

It's all in the bag

I recently read an article written by a mom that wanted to break the tradition of providing a "goodie bag" to each of the children that attended her daughters birthday party. She thought kids today were overindulged and there was no need to send them away from a celebration toting an over-priced plastic bag containing a few, soon to be discarded prizes.

JINGLE FROM PRINGLE

LYNN

395-6364

She asked her daughter what she thought of the "not giving a goodie bag" idea and as far as I know, the child has still not spoken in a civil tongue to her mother. I totally agreed with the mom and seeing as my darling little, unpretentious, unspoiled and very practical daughter will be hosting a celebration bash in honor of her eighth birthday next week, I posed the question to her one quiet evening after dinner. "Dear, seeing as mommy is spending a small fortune on this little birthday extravaganza of your, how would you feel if we set a precedent here and did away with the traditional "goodie bag" for each of your guests?"

I thought, perhaps, I might meet with a little resistance, or a small cry of astonishment, but what greeted me was beyond all my beliefs entirely. This mild-manner, never speak ill of anyone, this quiet, demure, lovable, likable, sweeter than honey child, this young lady whom I carried in my womb for 8 months and 2 weeks, fed, protected, clothed and nurtured all her life, this innocent young human being ripped into this mouth-hanging-open mom like a lioness defending her cubs—and this is the child I like. I was shocked at the words that came tumbling across her lips in her attempt to express herself. I shudder to think what colorful prose she would have used to get her point across had she been going to a public school instead of a parochial

one. (Oh, I can see the lines at Lip Service lighting up with that little statement.)

Now what is it with these bags full of useless stuff anyway. As moms we spend more time, energy, creativity and money on these little sacks then on the entire planning phase of the whole rest of the party. We don't want to come across as "cheap" if we just fill the sack with generic candy but to get anything decent to put inside, well, you have to times the price by 15 or 16 depending on how many little classmates attend. That could be enough to max out your VISA Card or drain the cash reserve from your 401(K). And, you can have the most successful birthday party since the beginning of time but you send a child home with a trashy goodie bag, and your child's reputation will be in ruins. And, what do the kids do with the gems in these bags? they take them home and use the contents to taunt and torture any siblings that didn't attend the party and therefore are not privileged to a bag of their own. The party-goers rarely look at the treasures once the party has come to an end and the day is over. So, why do we agonize so over what we place in these bags? Why do we spend a college education's worth of money on a party for our children then feel the need to provide the guests with a reward.

It's been said that providing guests with a little something on their departure from the festivities is a way of saying thank-you for coming. I look at it as a thank-you for finally leaving, that means the party is over and perhaps now I can regain some of my sanity. So, as it stands now, any guest that attends my daughters party will definitely be leaving with one of those worshipped loot bags—I have no other choice. I will certainly try to fill them with something they will treasure beyond the end of the day—possibly even into their teen-age years. Perhaps it will be something as overindulged adults they will even be able to share with their therapists.

And so goes another "Jingle from Pringle"—don't forget to call 395-6364.

Seniors help beautify Metra station

A senior donation will help beautify the Antioch Metra station.

Two Senior Center donations of $250 will be used to provide additional landscaping for the Metra station. Village trustees unanimously approved the use of the funds.

Senior club officials were on hand when the announcement was made.

"It's a partnership. We work hand in hand with the village," said Paul Howard of the senior center.

Howard thanked the board for having the village public work's staff keep the center clean.

"It's a clean facility. Most seniors around the county admire our building. We have one of the best centers in Lake County," Howard said.

The senior center has activities nearly every day. It is under the village's park and recreation department, but the activities are run by the members.

He added seniors are more than happy to donate something back to the community.

"We thank you for your donation," said Marilyn Shineflug.

Shineflug suggested using the funds for landscaping the station area, which was readily accepted by trustees.

Each year the Seniors donate money back to the village for the board to use at their discretion.

Banquet to benefit Ducks Unlimited

The Chain-O-Lakes Chapter of Ducks Unlimited will hold its 14th annual banquet at Maravela's Banquet Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 25 at 7 p.m.

"The Ducks Unlimited success story," said ticket chairman Dan Ray, "is really an ongoing story of success. Local Ducks Unlimited fundraising events held throughout the country last year contributed towards Ducks Unlimited's national fundraising effort of $77.6 million during 1996 alone. But what's even more important to realize," said Ray, "is that this national fundraising total must increase this year if the North American waterfowl habitat race is to be won."

Each year, the United States loses some 140,000 acres of wetland habitat. Since its inception, Ducks Unlimited has raised over $968 million and enhanced or restored 7.4 million acres, encompassing over 14,934 wetland projects, in an effort to reverse this destructive trend. DU's projects provide habitat for over 600 wildlife species, including ducks, geese and endangered species like the whooping crane and bald eagle. Local projects include wetland management for marsh areas along the Fox River, and installation of numerous wood duck nest boxes in the Chain O' Lakes area.

While Ducks Unlimited has accomplished a great deal since its founding in 1937, the rapid draining of wetlands demands that the organization continue to accelerate its work. The work of local chapters like the Chain O' Lakes committee is a vital part of Ducks Unlimited's efforts. "Our committee is calling on conservation-minded individuals within the community to help support our fundraising efforts. We've received tremendous participation in the past," said Ray, "but there are still a lot of people out there with good intentions who would really like to make a positive difference in helping wildlife, but just don't know how to go about it.

This is the perfect opportunity to actually do something that will help." He points out that this is a social event where couples and children are welcome. "We're going to have a lot of fine food, excellent art work, good prizes, raffles, and auctions: plenty of fun for everyone. Cocktails will be served at 5:30 p.m., and dinner at 7 p.m. Those who attend can rest assured the dollars we raise go directly to a very good cause."

For more information on how to help support Ducks Unlimited, contact Dan Ray at 587-3140 for tickets and further details.

Rotary to host South American exchange student

The Rotary Club of Antioch will be hosting a Foreign Exchange Student from South America during the 1997-98 school year. The student will be a 16 to 18 year old male. He will have studied English for a number of years. He will be enrolled full time at Antioch Community High School as a Junior.

Rotary is seeking three host families to each host the student for approximately three and a half months. Host periods are typically mid-August until first of December. Rotary facilitates host families with an Exchange Officer, who is from Antioch and will be available for guidance and participation throughout the year. Further, the family is responsible only for the costs of room and board. Rotary compensates host families with a monthly allowance of $100. The home does not need to have a room dedicated solely to the student.

Families interested in this unique cultural experience are invited to contact Antioch Rotary's Youth Exchange Officer, Stan Livermore at 395-4200 for further information.

Cheerleaders win regional championship

The Antioch varsity cheerleaders put together another outstanding performance of their cheer, stunts and dance routine to take home a first place finish at the Stevenson regional competition. This squad has had much success this year, but winning this championship will be one of the memories they will all remember. Their coach Bill Goetzelman said "This team is truly remarkable we had knee injuries, pulled muscles, twisted ankles. We hobbled around all day but come time to perform, these girls put on a show that you would think none of these injuries were there. I am extremely proud of them. They have a lot of talent and have worked hard all year and now they are seeing what that work has earned them."

A senior member of the cheerleaders put it this way, "We have worked hard together to get this far, we can't let an injury stop us now. You just keep telling yourself the routine is only three and one half minutes you can do it. The Stevenson regional is recognized as one of the hardest in the state, to take first there is a great a great accomplishment for our squad."

One of the squad members, Laura Deutsch, has been selected as one of the 10 finalists for the Illinois Cheerleading Coaches Association Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded based on cheerleading ability, coaches recommendation, and scholastic achievement.

The cheerleaders next performance is at the State Cheerleading Championship on Saturday March 15 at Illinois State University.

The Walworth-Jefferson County Chapter of the Ice Age Park and Trail Foundation is sponsoring an amateur photo contest. The objective is to acquaint people with the Ice Age Trail—in particular, the segment that runs through Walworth, Jefferson, and Waukesha Counties. Many people are unaware that such a trail exists, yet it is a National Scenic Trail and there for all to enjoy.

The prints may be mounted or unmounted with a minimum size of 5x7-inch and a maximum of 16x 20-inch. Slides must be mounted (2x2-inch). There is no entry fee unless you want the slides returned—50 cents for the first slide, 10 cents for each additional slide. There is no limit on the number of entries in any division. Each entry must be accompanied by a 3x5-inch card giving name, address, phone number and approximate location of photograph.

There will be a Grand prize of $100 for the best photograph, and three best of division prizes of $25 each.

Entries must be received by May 20 and have been taken on or after Jan. 1. The can be hand delivered to Kettle Moraine State Forest, southern unit on Hwy. 59, just west of Eagle or to Converse Equipment Co. W8008 Hwy. 12 E, Whitewater. Or they may be mailed to Ice Age Trail Photo Contest N8466 Pickerel Lake Road, East Troy, WI 53120. Photos will be on display at South Kettle Moraine State Forest Headquarters the first week in June.

A spring hike on May 3, on a segment of the Ice Age Trail in Walworth County will be open to anyone wishing to hike and/or take photographs along the trail. It will be announced again at a later date.

The Ice Age Trail, when completed will be about 1,000 miles long and of the last glaciation in Wisconsin. It is a hiking trail and open to all who would like to experience the quiet and beauty of the forests, the prairies, the flora and the fauna.

to get up on the ice and it was breaking," Stancil said. "They got up on the ice and started to run (indoors). One kid said he couldn't feel much and was slowing down a lot. I ran out where it was safe and threw him on my back and ran him into the bar."

Once inside the youths were warmed up and, although he never knew the names of the youths, one of their fathers thanked Stancil for helping the boys out of the water.

But the day wasn't over for Stancil.

"It was weird," he said. "After that, someone else went in and I helped pull his sled out on Grass Lake Channel."

After the owner had gone in with a wet suit to attach a rope to the skis, Stancil and four others helped pull the machine up to shore.

Following that recovery, Stancil later helped with yet another snowmobile which had gone through the ice near Grass Lake Bridge.

"There were two people there with wet suits and they got it out," Stancil said, "and I towed it up to the one guy's truck."

After twelve hours on, in, and around the lakes, Stancil had had enough and reached home at around 10:30 p.m.

"It was a wild night," he said.

Parking meters leaving

It's an end of an era. A happy end to residents and visitors who will no longer have to feed parking meters in Antioch.

The village board agreed to have all the meters taken out. That task is slated to take place Feb. 19.

The meters are no longer necessary because of the village's comprehensive parking plan. The plan establishes two- and six-hour parking locations as well as permit parking for employees of the various businesses.

"The parking plan has worked so well there is no need for the meters," said Mayor Marilyn Shineflug. "There are more places to park."

Chris Kocinski scored 14 points and Joe Finkelberg 13 in the win over Lake Forest. Brian Walsh and Jeff Huebner led the rebounding effort while Justin Mehaffey set the tone on defense.

Ryan Callanan and Andrew Kinney scored 4 points each against Libertyville in one game. Kocinski had 10 and Shawn Schuler had 7 in the other contest. Tom Kenney, Drew Petkus and Chris Malec led the rebounding chores against Libertyville. Josh Bonner and Kevin Pendergast were the defensive leaders. Antioch is 6-2 overall.

The eighth grade team fell to Libertyville 51-41. Eric White scored 23 points and Bob Huebner had eight. Scott Hoeina and Justen Kent led the rebounding and defensive efforts.

Fast start propels WHS girls to showdown

STEVE PETERSON

They won 22 of 25 games, the all but one in the Northwest Suburban Conference wars, yet respect will be on the minds of Wauconda girls when they travel to Warren High with a regional championship on the line.

Wauconda and Warren (22-5) both took care of business Tuesday, with Wauconda downing Grant 56-37 for the fourth time while Warren had no trouble with Round Lake in a 68-28 romp.

Corey Henningfeld scored 18 points and snared several key rebounds as Wauconda gained a 19-point lead at halftime.

"We knew that Grant wanted this as much as we did and it is hard to play a team a third or fourth time so we came out and played as hard as we could. We came out really excited. We just work on getting good position for rebounds. I think we don't ever give up. Our defense played great," Henningfeld said.

"We got to the inside, we blocked off very well. The big kids did a nice job on the boards as well as the smaller kids. But it's like everybody's shooting - today it is with you, tomorrow it is gone," Rajkowski said.

Wauconda used 6-of-9 shooting from the field for a 15-2 lead which set the tone for the rest of the contest. A tip-in by Henningfeld was followed by a driving layup from Chrissy Schulze, and a buzzer beater by Kelly Ryberg for a 21-7 cushion.

Grant could only manage 30 percent from the field in that span.

The shooting touch disappeared a little in the second quarter but Grant could not generate enough offense.

"We had three players in double figures and one with nine. It is hard to shut down a team when they spread it out that far," Rajkowski said. Of the inconsistent times on offense: "Sometimes we got a little bit anxious."

Down 34-15 at intermission, Grant established a presence on rebounds in the third period and turnovers slowed Wauconda's offense. When soph Amy Stringer put back a miss in the opening seconds of the fourth, Grant was within shooting distance, down 13 points. But Henningfeld proved to be the steadying influence, grabbing two Grant misses and converting at the other end on three occasions for a 16-point lead.

Your team is ahead by one point, then looking at a potential deficit in the fourth quarter of a first-round playoff game?

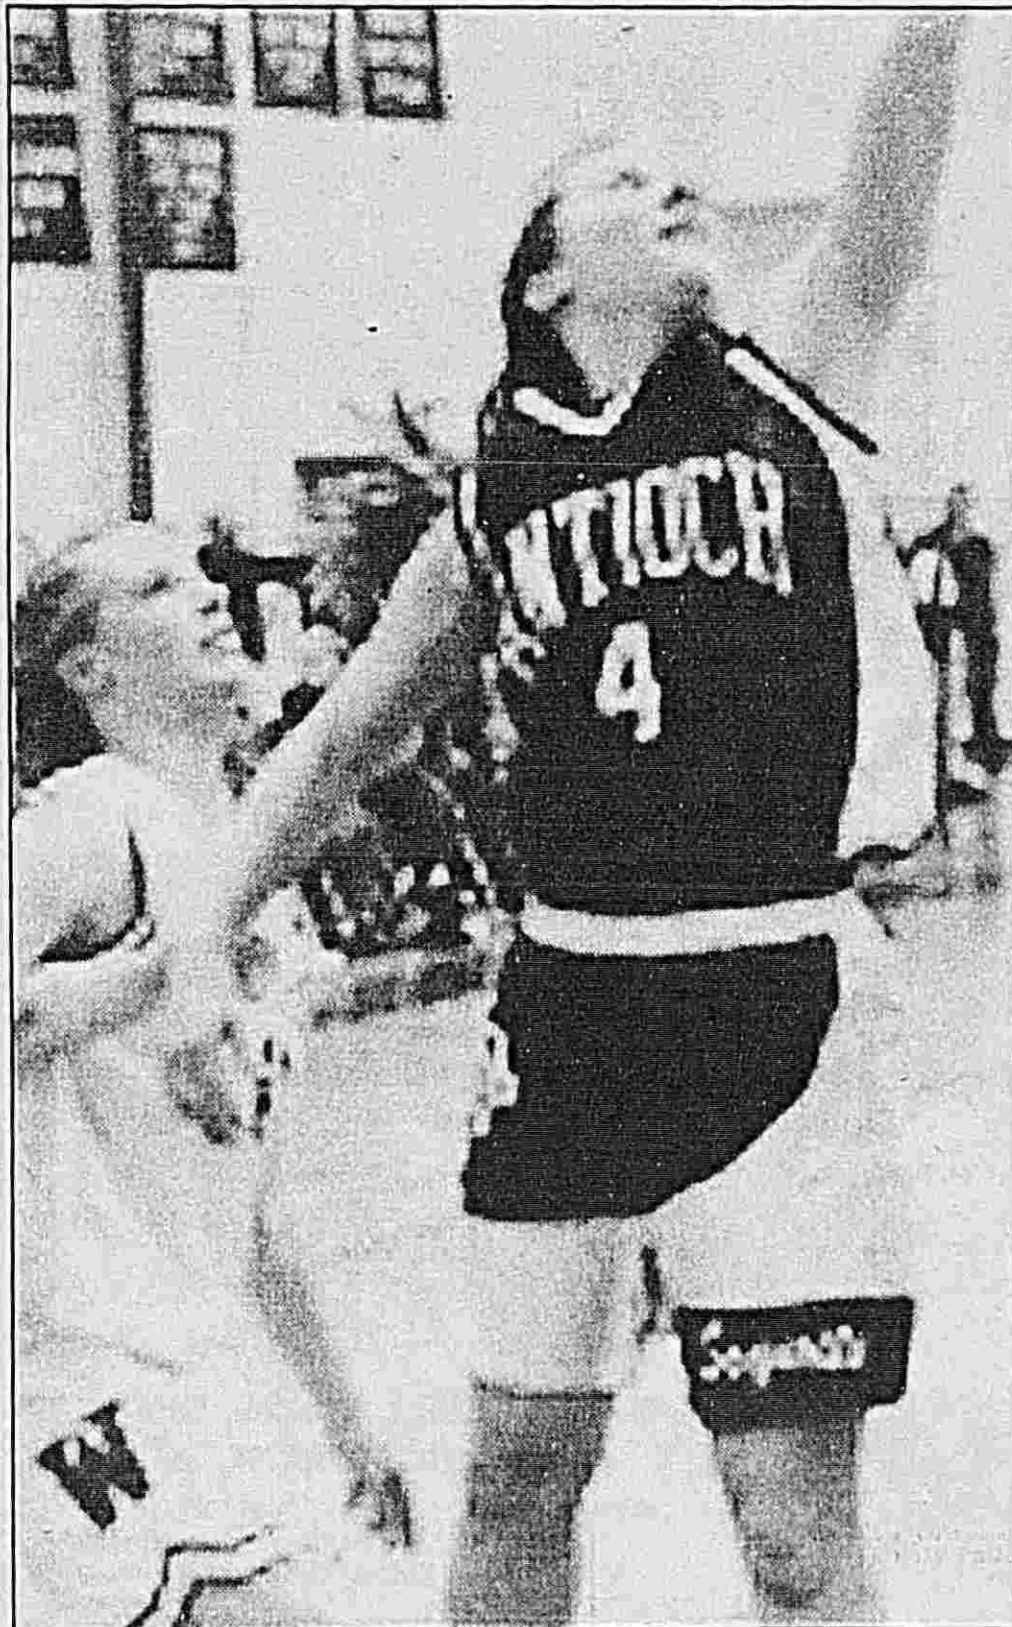

If your team is the Antioch Sequoits, you call on the combination of Carrie Gofron's overall hustle and the inside play generated by Aja Brown. The duo combined in all areas as the Sequoits pulled away from Mundelein for a 47-37 win.

The bad news for the Sequoits faithful: the top seed and No. 6 ranked Lake Zurich looms in the regional final round on Feb. 20. The sectional semifinals are at Libertyville at 6 p.m. Feb. 24 with the sectional final Feb. 27.

Gofron contributed a key steal, a field goal and two free throws in the 16-point quarter. Brown had six of her 10 points in the final stanza. Lisa Ipsen also had 10.

Gaining some late-season momentum, Antioch High continues to improve and may have more than a say in who wins the North Suburban Conference.

The Sequoits host Warren High on Feb. 25 and the Blue Devils need two wins in the last two games to gain at least a share. Antioch has won three of its last four games, including a 50-47 win at North Chicago on Friday.

Carmel tops Marian, has strong start against Benet in ESCC

Performing what coach Ben Berg described as "the best half of basketball this season", Carmel fought to an eight-point lead over Benet Academy at home in an East Suburban Catholic Conference clash.

But it was all Redwings in the second half as the visitors pulled away to a 51-41 win. The loss gave Carmel a split for the weekend in league play, as it beat Marian Catholic 46-37 on the road Friday.

"Their defensive pressure got to us in the second half. They picked it up at halfcourt," Berg said.

John Koch had 17 points for Carmel. Nick Leider, a soph who made his debut this weekend, was a force as well as the Corsairs gained a 26-18 first half lead. Leider had 12 against Marian.

"With Nick at point guard, it frees up John so he can shoot the ball. Nick played very well. He has a lot of poise and will be with us the rest of the way," Berg said.

The Corsairs were successful in getting the ball to post players such as Matt Schmidt, who had 16 points on Friday. "He is our most consistent post player. He shoots over 50 percent and does a nice job," Berg said.

Greg Teipel had 8 points and 11 rebounds and 6 blocked shots. "He is our most physical kid and he was able to be more physical on Friday. On Saturday, we had to field a more athletic team," Berg said.

Carmel (4-18, 3-8 ESCC) hosts Holy Cross Feb. 21 and Loyola Feb. 22.

Antioch grapplers look to future

The luck of the draw was not on the side of Antioch wrestlers at the Conant sectional.

The Sequoits had early exits from the meet, but the good news is most will have further opportunities to advance on to the state tournament.

"They will bounce back. They are already thinking about Greco and Freestyle wrestling this summer," ACHS coach Ted Sieckowski said.

One exception is Bob English. The 112 pounder is a senior and completed his career with a 17-11 senior year after a fall to Mauro Martinez of Highland Park, the eventual champ.

Soph Jake Crammond showed promise the second half of the year. He won his first round bout over John Friedstat of New Trier but lost in the second round at 140. "There is no doubt he had a stronger second half of the season," Sieckowski said.

Senior Tim Cizanskas won his first-round match with a 12-4 win at 189 pounds but lost his second round decision.

Leitza second-rated goalie

St. Cloud State University junior goaltender Brian Leitza, a 1992 graduate of Antioch High, collected 50 saves in a weekend split with Colorado College. The Huskies lost to Colorado State 4-2 but won 5-4.

ACHS was a surprising second to Libertyville at the NSC meet before a tough regional meet. Regional champs were Ryan Hlinak at 103, English, Joe Brandimore at 130; Jeff Ultes of 171. Freshmen looking to challenge are: Adam Niles at 112; Ron Nissen, Jeff Giernot at 189; Jarred Lewis and Brandon Francke.

Leitza owns a 12-4-0 record this season and is ranked second in the nation in goalie win percentage.

The Huskies are in fifth place in the WCHS with 29 points. The Huskies are 16-9-3 overall and are 13-8-3 in the WCHA.

the regional," ACHS coach Jeff Dresser said.

Antioch, 10-12 overall, is at Zion-Benton Feb. 21, another team ahead of it in the NSC standings.

The Sequoits showed patience in the final 90 seconds which determined the game with the Warhawks. Ahead 48-47, they ran 20 seconds off the clock before Kevin Chudd was fouled with eight seconds left. He made both free throws to ice the win.

Mike Nielsen led the charge early with 12 points, 10 in the first quarter in a 13-6 Antioch run. He contributed some key rebounds, Dresser said.

North Chicago turned the tables with a 21-9 second period for a five-point halftime lead. "We did a nice job in the second half of handling their press. We just kept the ball away," Dresser said.

Antioch had a 13-3 advantage on second half free throws, helping to offset North Chicago's quickness.

ACHS is the ninth seed in the Waukegan sectional, opening at Grant March 4 or 5.

Vikings elect new officers

The Antioch Vikings football program announces its board of directors for this year as elected at a meeting by parents, coaches and staff.

Neal Coull will serve as president; R.J. Howard is the vice president; Denny Porter is the athletic director and Wayne Santi and Brent Gandolfi will serve as directors.

Tina Coull was named recording secretary, Joanne Hubbel was named financial secretary, and Cindy Cox was selected as league treasurer.

The Vikings hold monthly board meetings on the second Tuesday of every month at 7 p.m. at Antioch Senior Center. All parents, coaches, and interested parties are encouraged to attend. Plans for 1997 season are already in the works, with several committees to help run the league smoothly.

Challenge

great. We needed that to pull away. Angela Bailey did great. She has stepped up. She is really tough," Gofron said.

Gofron had a 16-point game in a win over Carmel to end the regular season, so the 14-point effort was continued strong play.

"We have scouted everyone so we knew what we needed to do. Lisa (Ipsen) and I were guarding Courtney Nye and Marsha Letto - we played tough on them," Gofron said.

Brown, a 5-foot, 9-inch junior, came back to Antioch after playing at Carmel last year. She has been in and out of the starting lineup, but has had a late-season improvement for the Sequoits.

"That puts a lot less pressure on Nicole Langley and I in the outside shooting," Gofron said.

"Once you get a lead in the fourth quarter, go with the motion game and let them come out and get us. Overall we handled the ball fairly well. We got some key rebounds so low. We got some momentum in the fourth quarter. For us, it was a fast-paced game," ACHS coach Dave Woods said.

Mundelein finishes the year 9-16 but coach Tom Kuhn believes it was a good one. "We competed well against a couple of teams we have not competed well against in the past and a lot of players grew up a lot."

One of those players was Heather Hynds. The frosh center had 10 points and eight rebounds. Senior Blaire Beatty had seven points, two coming on free throws for a one-point 45-34 deficit with 4:27 left.

"She is now one of the most mature players out there. She grew up a lot in a short period of time," Kuhn said of Hynds.

Nye, one of four Mustangs to advance to the regional final of three-point shoot around, was the key and was held to six points. "We had talked about that their offense is initiated either with Nye penetrating or dishing off to the left or right. The outside two people were supposed to be in denial position. Carrie was doing it excellent. Carrie is one of the best at doing that. You have to step up in the passing lane. We knew it was just a matter of time before we got one from them," Woods said.

Brown beat the Mundelein perimeter defense and went all the way for a lay-up. She later hit two free-throw tries when she was fouled on a similar move and a baseline shot by Ipsen gave Antioch a seven-point bulge with 1:28 left.

ACHS (11-14 overall) then did what Gofron spoke of - making the final six free throws in the last :50.

"In the motion game, we want to swing to Aja. She was the only one who can put the ball on the floor and go one-on-one. With her quickness, we knew she could get the ball to the basket. It was not a set play, just the continuity of the offense," Woods said.

Brown was ready for the challenge of the final quarter. Her only mistake was a lane violation on a previous free-throw. Brown and Jeanna Miller were able to muscle in for key rebounds.

"Even though they were taller than we were, we were able to box out. We kept Nye out of the middle. We're starting to work together as a team and we're looking forward to more regional games," Brown said. "We're close - starting to work together as a team."

"I said, 'you better get yourself ready - you will be a key in this fourth quarter. She shows some toughness. We have been asking her to do that," Woods said.

A three-pointer by Nye on an unlikely play at the end of the first period cut the ACHS lead to three. Brown scored two baskets in the second quarter as the lead regained to eight at halftime. An outside jumper by Gofron preceded a run by Mundelein which cut the lead to one. What hurt Mundelein was four missed free throws.

As for the chances against the Fox Valley Conference champs with a sub .500 record, Woods is putting an optimistic view.

"With facing Libertyville, Lake Forest and Warren. I am sure Lake Zurich is on a par with those teams. We will just have to play a real good game and hope they have an off night. We will be ready. We have them scouted three times. The girls are excited. These girls have played against the Catchings (Tamika and Tauja of Stevenson) and two state teams. They will not be intimidated. If we have a good shooting night, we can play well. Anything can happen," Woods said.

Joel Dangel has hot hand for CLC hoopsters

Joel Dangel made the majority of his field goal tries as College of Lake County battled Waubesa in Skyway Conference play.

Unfortunately for the Lancers, not enough players were shooting 63 percent as Dangel did in a 82-71 loss to the Chiefs.

"Joel led us. He scored 23 points, with five three-pointers and had a total of 14-of-22 from the field for 63 percent.

He had five rebounds and two steals in 26 minutes," CLC coach Terry Ryan said of Dangel, a Warren Township High grad.

The team, though, shot just 28-of-68 from the field for 41.2 percent.

CLC, 7-21 and 3-7 Skyway closes the home season as both teams take on Morton.

The women's game starts at 5 p.m.

Capturing the moment in a garden

Nancy Burgess,
'Gardens and Other

Long Grove photographer, writer shares her passion in book

book which contains 128 full color photographs of gardens and other bucolic havens in Long Grove.

The soft-cover book is divided into five sections: Downtown, Long Grove Park District Properties, Back Roads and Private Driveways, Private Gardens and other sanctuaries.

Burgess introduces each chapter of the work with a passage of prose extolling the conservation of natural beauty. Throughout the book, she also pays tribute to the Long Grove community and its commitment to the environment. It is the first publication of its kind about the village.

by SUSAN KLEIN
Correspondent

Irving-Cloud Publishing Co. of Wauconda is publishing the book, which is due out in March. "We saw this as a very excellent opportunity to create a high-quality publishing product that has a lot of integrity," said Martin H. Schultz, vice-president and editorial director for Irving-Cloud. "We're very excited about the book."

"Gardening teaches patience," Burgess says in her book. She also learned to be patient when doing her camera work for "Gardens." With "cameras ready" she spent a year, often with her two young children in tow, seeking out and shooting private and public gardens, open prairies, wetlands, and woodlands in Long Grove. "My forte is natural areas," she said. "I seem to have a better eye for it." Her photographs of wildflowers are also featured in the 1997 Long Grove Village calendar.

Burgess, who writes a regular column for the Vernon Hills News and the Lake Zurich Enterprise and for Lake Zurich's "Hometown" flier, an Irving-Cloud publication, hopes her book will appeal to gardeners, artists, naturalists, environmentalists and to the general public and that her photographs will elicit a variety of responses.

"A photograph cannot capture all the senses touched by a garden. The music of the birds, the buzz of the bees, the babble of a fountain, the warmth of the sun and the scent of a lily can only be imagined from a photograph," she says in the book.

A native of Ohio and former resident of Buffalo Grove, Burgess holds a bachelor's degree in home economics with a minor in creative writing from Ohio State University. In addition to plying her own green thumb, she has her hand in numerous volunteer community projects.

Advance orders of the book are available through the publisher at 379 Hollow Hill Drive, Wauconda, Ill., 60084 and are being taken at Long Grove's Information Center, Mangel's, Tricia's Garden Path, and The Curiosity Shop—all located in the antique business See GARDEN page B2

When Nancy Burgess moved to Long Grove six years ago, the budding author discovered what she calls the miracle of gardening, after transplanting hundreds of wildflowers from a construction site to her own backyard.

The reward for her hard work was a lush expanse of natural color, and her casual interest in gardening quickly grew into an obsession — one she indulges in her first book "Gardens and Other Sanctuaries in Long Grove."

Burgess, 33, has combined her talents as a writer and self-taught photographer to produce the 150-page

Artist Bruce Brown to unveil new work at Lake County Museum

The Lake County Forest Preserves' Lake County Museum honors African American family life and culture with "Art as an Expression of Culture," a new exhibit featuring the work of local artists, Bruce Brown.

Meet the artist and view the exhibit at a free reception, Thursday, Feb. 27 from 7 to 9 p.m., where Brown will unveil a new piece, "Grandmas' Hands," and discuss the inspiration for his work.

On display until March 31, the exhibit features monochromatic images that celebrate everyday family life, African American heroes and culture. using only paper and pencil, Brown pushes the medium to its limit to express the positive forces that have influenced his life. His signature piece, "Mother Nature," is over six-feet tall and took over 60 pencils to complete.

Brown is no stranger to adversity. The artist's home, studio and his portfolio were destroyed by fire several years ago, causing Brown to separate from his art.

In 1992, Chicago Gallery owner, Samuel Akainyah, reignited Brown's passion to create and Brown introduced his first exhibit in 1995.

Brown's work has been commissioned by Allstate Insurance and WGCI Radio. Recent showings include the Museum of Science and Industry's "Black Creativity" exhibit and the Noyes Cultural Center Arts Gallery's "Strength, Struggle and Triumph" exhibit. The artist resides in Vernon Hills with his wife and three children.

All ages are invited to attend the artists reception. Admission to the galleries and the reception are free.

The Florida alternative, a trip to the Bahamas

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Less than 50 miles off the coast of Florida lies the island of Bimini, the closest of over 700 islands that make up the country known as the Bahamas. What does the Bahamas have to offer that you can't get in Florida?

How about crystal clear waters, miles of powder white sand beaches and some of the best scuba diving found anywhere? That should satisfy sun and sand types. For the Vegas crowd, Paradise Island Casino and Cable Beach Casino will be most happy to take your money!

The Bahamas is divided into three areas. New Providence Island is where you'll find the capitol city, Nassau. This city has a long and colorful history. It was long the home of pirates and buccaneers. You can still visit the watch tower used by Edward Teach (you know him as Blackbeard).

Cable Beach is also on New Providence Island, five miles west of Nassau. Most of the newer hotels are located there.

Connected to New Providence Island by a long, high bridge is Paradise Island, also the home of the newest and most exclusive hotels as well as the Paradise Island Casino.

The other main island is Grand Bahama Island, home of Freeport/Lucaya. Freeport, as well as Nassau, are frequented by many cruise liners. Freeport is a "planned" city of the Bahamas government and has only been around since the '50s. A tip from Jim, skip Freeport. No historic sites, fair beaches. Too "planned."

If you really want to get away from it all, the Family Islands are for you. You'll find no discos, no casinos, few phones and fewer televisions.

Skip Florida this year. Give the Bahamas a try.

Where have all the baby psychics gone?

Everywhere I look lately, there are co-workers or friends having babies, and I've noticed that it has become unfashionable to have any interest in the gender of your future child. I cannot remember the last time I heard a pregnant woman or her spouse say, "We're hoping for a boy" or "We're hoping for a girl." Today it's always the same, boring statement—"We're just hoping for a healthy baby."

Well, of course they're hoping for a healthy baby—obviously, they're not hoping to give birth to a gorilla. But I don't see any harm in stating your preference. I mean, it's not like you can send it back if it's not what you ordered. At the very least, even if sex is not an issue, parents-to-be could be a little more specific, such as "We're hoping for a healthy baby with a more stable personality than Dennis Rodman."

And though we now have all these wonderful tests, like ultrasound, that can tell you ahead of time whether you're having a boy or girl, most folks today choose not to be told the results of the test, in keeping with this "I have no preference or opinion" theme these days.

I have to tell you—this drives me crazy. Though I didn't have ultrasound with my first two children, I did with the last two and, personally, I was dying to know whether I was pregnant with a boy or a girl, if only so my child's beginning wardrobe didn't have to be yellow or pale green. I remember perfectly the first time I had an ultrasound, as my husband and I stared intensely at the blurry black and white image on the screen, trying to make out body parts.

However, if you've ever had an ultrasound when you're three or four months pregnant, you know how difficult it is to figure out what you're looking at. Picture "ET" as a the disappearance of a whole group of people—baby psychics. Baby psychics were well-meaning folks who, by virtue of having had children themselves, became self-proclaimed experts on predicting the sex of your baby.

There were two types of baby psychics; the first based their predictions on their powers of observations. "You're carrying the baby all out in front like a basketball. It's going to be boy."

Or "it has to be a girl. I can tell by your shape—wide!"

The second group of psychics used a tool to predict the sex. They held an object on a string over your stomach, and if it circled a certain way, it was a boy, and vice versa. (I don't know about you, but when they did that, I always wanted someone to say, "You are getting very sleepy...").

Still, we can't just let this ritual die out completely. We've got to find work for these people.

And since politics has taken away their usefulness, perhaps politics can restore it. I say we place one of these folks at every voting booth for the next election. Think how much help they could be.

"If it swings to the left, vote Democratic. If it swings to the right..."

baby, and you now know what ultrasound pictures look like at that stage. So, if you're like me, you start watching for other signs.

"Look—the little alien has its legs crossed. You know what that means, don't you honey?" I asked my husband.

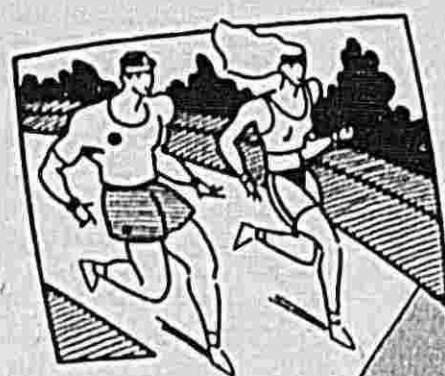

"Sure. It means the alien likes to cross its' legs," he answered.

"Very funny. It means that it's a girl!" She's modest—she knows we're looking at her!"

Normally, my husband would have given me that look—the one that indicates that women are definitely from Venus and/or insane. But in this case, being a first-time father, he figured that mothers just knew these things. So much for that theory—you should have seen the look on his face when he found out his "daughter" was a boy!

Of course, the real downside to all of this pregnant politically correct behavior is that it has caused

'Peak' makes ash of itself

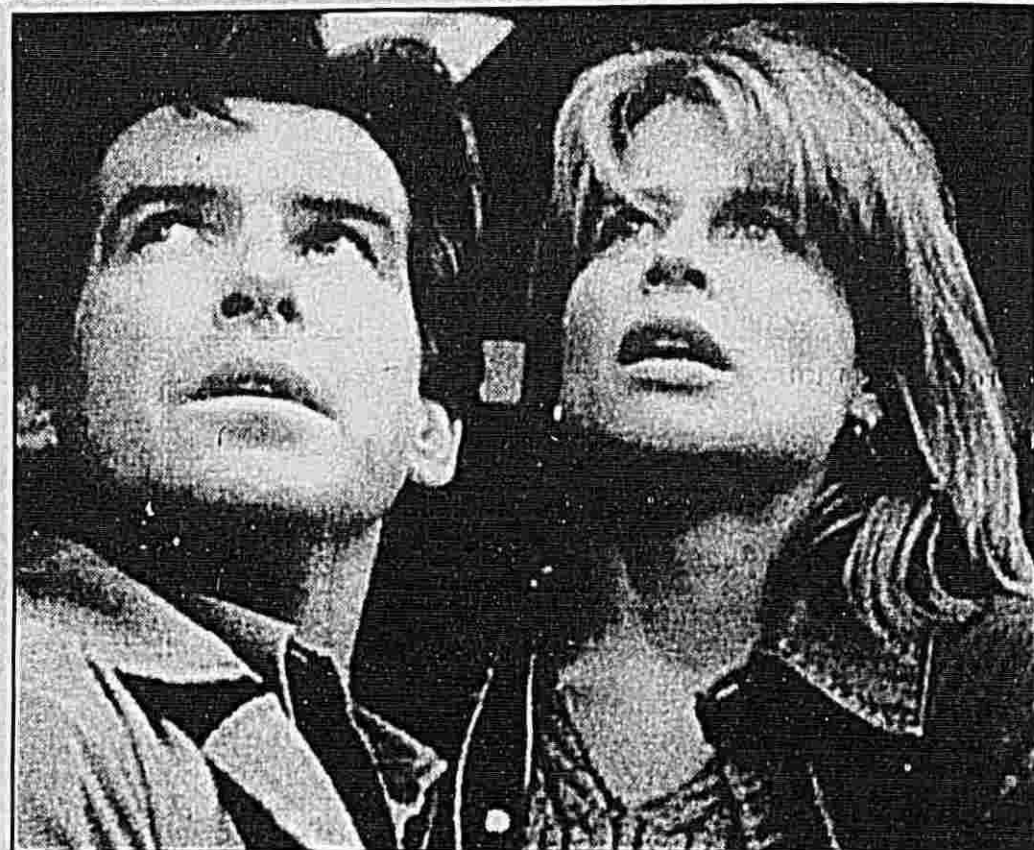

Your reviewer feels that she has seen enough disaster pics to make the biggest one of them all. We'll call it "A Really Bad Day!"

In it Sly Stallone is caught up in the center of a twister and deposited on the edge of an erupting volcano in the center of which an alien spaceship is being studied by Jeff Goldblum who Helen Hunt is pleading with.

She implores him to join Charleton Heston, by way of a collapsing tunnel, to warn the people of a small New England town of an impending earthquake due to happen on Super Bowl Sunday starting in the football stadium in New Orleans.

Though my film may lack originality, it just has to be better than "Dante's Peak," and even Stallone's efforts at what he calls acting will come across better than the dramatic efforts of Pierce Brosnan and Linda Hamilton.

The script from hell has Brosnan playing a volcano expert who finds that a dormant volcano in a small Idaho town is about to erupt. Of course no one believes him or even wants to because they don't want to stop the town from flourishing, until the sky is filled with volcanic gray ash and molten lava starts running through the streets.

Hamilton in no way made me buy that she was the mayor of this ill-fated town. She of course falls in love with Brosnan. Will they get the grandmother and the kids out of harm's way? How many more times will that much too adorable family dog find his way into trouble just to be saved in the nick of time.

Of course the special effects we are pummeled with are marvelous, but at this stage of the disaster movie game, who cares? Like the ice cream store clerk that gorges himself on his product, even the best ice cream in the world becomes tasteless when you have a disastrous tummy ache.

There's really not much left for George Lucas and his peers to surprise us with. Oh look, there goes a 747 filled with giant dinosaurs crashing onto the Kennedy at rush hour — yawn! yawn!

We probably would have liked "Dante's Peak" more a year ago before this last avalanche of doom and gloom explosions, and will hate it and be bored even more with it in 1998.

We give "Dante's Peak" an "A/Z" for special effects, wonderful, so? It gets a "D" for the plot and a "C" for the cast's dramatic efforts. Brosnan is the coolest dude in a hot PG13 rated movie that we give two out of five stars. We'd say wait for the video, but then only if you own a big time TV screen to do those special effects justice.—

GSH celebrates first birthday of baby nursery

Debbie Danielson, RN, of Good Shepherd's Birth Center works with a newborn.

Good Shepherd Hospital, Barrington, is celebrating the first birthday of its 4,500 square-foot baby nursery. The new nursery officially opened one year ago and since that time, more than 2,000 babies have left their footprints in the hospital's guest book.

"We've experienced another remarkable year helping to bring new life into the homes of thousands of area families," said June Thomas, Good Shepherd's clinical director of women's services.

"We're very thankful to have a more spacious and highly equipped facility to accommodate the needs of newborns in our community."

In addition to the first birthday of the new nursery's opening, Good Shepherd is also celebrating the first birthday of another new arrival—a higher level neonatal designation. Last year at this time Good Shepherd became Lake County's newest "Level II Plus" Birth Center. This state designation means the hospital can provide 24-hour, immediate and continuous, intensive care for critically ill newborns with special needs weighing 1,250 grams or more.

Prior to the new Level II designation, many premature infants would have been immediately transferred to a Level III prenatal facility for treatment while the child's mother recovered at Good Shepherd and the father and other family members traveled between hospitals to visit mom and baby.

"It's a very stressful time for families," said Thomas. "The new designation allows us to care for many premature and critically ill babies and therefore keep families together so they can support each other at that critical time. It's another way Good Shepherd is providing family-focused care."

The new nursery was designed with physician and nursing input and is equipped with the latest medical technology and family focused features to provide quality health care to newborns and their families. The $1.8 million nursery expansion is approximately four times the size of the previous nursery. It includes 22 normal beds and eight special care newborn beds, and has the flexibility to accommodate more babies, if necessary. The nursery includes an admitting nursery for closer observation immediately following delivery a regular newborn nursery, and a special care nursery designed for babies with special needs. The nursery also has a special viewing area for family members and siblings of newborns. A special "sibling" viewing window has been designed for small children to see into the nursery and look at their new baby brother or sister.

For more information about the birth center, call 1(800)323-8622.

Kids Dentist believe in 'Tell-Show-Do' technique

During National Children's Dental Health Month many schools and day care centers are taking field trips to local Pediatric Dental offices. This sort of event helps children overcome the fear of going to the dentist. Children learn to brush and floss their teeth and have the opportunity to see different dental instruments and to become acquainted with the dentist.

One office in particular is celebrating with great enthusiasm. The Kids Dentist, located in Grayslake, is welcoming over 1,500 children to their dental office for this occasion. Groups of 15 to 25 children will be visiting Kids Dentist. Dr. Sonia Gutierrez and her associates, Dr. Claire Garcia and Dr. Gerusa Mello, are very pleased to see the children so interested in learning about oral hygiene. "Good dental habits are established early in life and they will determine, in part, the oral health of an individual," said Dr. Sonia. Their philosophy for treating children is based on a "Tell-Show-Do" technique which involves telling the child what they are going to do, showing it to them (on their hand for example), and then actually performing the treatment. "Field trips are a great way of getting kids to understand the importance of seeing the dentist without the pressure of going through treatment," Dr. Gutierrez noted.

As part of the field trip, the doctors will be giving the children plaque disclosing tablets to help them visualize the areas of the mouth which need better brushing. "There is no reason to have bad teeth anymore. There are many ways to prevent cavities. Proper brushing, sealants on the teeth, and good dietary habits can prevent future problems," states Dr. Gutierrez.

Kids Dentist opened in September of 1994. Due to the community's welcome and support, they have experienced tremendous success and wish to thank their patients for the vote of confidence they express by referring their friends and family to the practice. Dr. Gutierrez and associates are the only female pediatric dentists in the Lake County area and are pleased to be helping the community by filling this void.

YOUR EYES

by Charlotte F. Nielsen O.D.

An estimated 10 million American men have defective color vision, ranging from mild difficulties with shades and tints of a few hues to a complete absence of any color perception. Only about one million American women have this problem.

The importance of color vision can be severe in certain professions where lives and equipment can be endangered through misidentification of colored signals. The testing of people in such professions is critical to identify these deficiencies. Fortunately, in most other areas of life, the loss of color perception in lesser degrees is simply something people get used to. Except for relatively rare "acquired" color defects, all color deficiencies are hereditary in origin and cannot be cured by any known treatment.

If you would like to be examined for color blindness, call and schedule an appointment.

How and when you invest affects total return

Americans are concerned with the bottom line. With mutual funds, that bottom line is called total return.

A mutual fund's total return includes income dividends, capital gain dividends and changes in the value of the fund's shares. For example, assume you invested $10,000 in a mutual fund at the beginning of the year. During the year, the fund's income dividends were $300 and capital gain dividends were $600. At year-end, the shares are worth $400 more than what you paid, or $10,400. Your total return is $1,300 ($300 + $600 + $400), or 13 percent.

That sounds simple enough. Why, then does a fund's published total return not always agree with investors' calculations?

Kemper Fundamentals, a newsletter on the basics of mutual funds, offers a hypothetical illustration to explain the difference between a fund's published return and investors' actual experience. The example shows the total return of a $10,000 investment in a mutual fund for the period April 30, 1995, through April 30, 1996. How and when that $10,000 investment was made affected total return.

The illustration is based on the performance of the Standard & Poor's (S&P) Index of 500 stocks over the given period. The S&P 500 is an unmanaged index generally considered representative of the U.S. stock market.

So, why does your fund's published annual return look different from what you receive? The total return shown on your account statement, shareholder report and most other publications is calculated assuming that: the full sum was invested on the first day of the one-year period; the shareholder did not add to or subtract from the invested amount; and all income and capital gain dividends were reinvested.

In other words, mutual funds publish total return as shown in the first example of the illustration. However, not all individual investments are made that way, as shown in examples 2 through 5.

For instance, in example 2, all dividends were taken in cash. Without the advantage of compounding, total return was lower for example 2 than it was for example 1.

In addition, the fund's value fluctuates during the year, so total return is not a constant factor. How and when you invest, therefore, affects your total return.

Fortunately, mutual fund companies understand the confusion over total return. Some are working on ways to develop account statements with annual total return figures that reflect your activity.

Until then, however, use the old total return equation and a pencil with a good eraser to check your individual bottom line.

Don't understand

I guess I don't understand the residents that live in Meadows. At first I thought they were courageous, joining in a lawsuit with two environmental groups to protect their lands, and misinformation. Of these threats, I've learned none of them turned out to be true, but many are still scared. I guess it's easier to scare people and when the truth surfaces, it's too late.

Too bad

I agree with the caller who complained about your proofreader. The Jan. 3 article was headlined "Young trombonist remembered." The readers were informed repeatedly that his name was Weber. The young trombonist I remember is named Joe Rogers. Too bad, your reporter and proofreader didn't allow this cool guy the dignity of his own name.

Editor's Note: The error is deeply regretted.

Wrong lessons taught

I signed my son up for Antioch youth baseball and according to the philosophy for the Allstar game, "the players selected will best represent our program. We coach and challenge the players to field the most competitive team possible." In other words, we play to win. "All playing time will not be equal." In fact, in some levels there is no guarantee of playing time. This is supposed to be a game for the kids. All the fun is out of it. Even in the major leagues, all the players play in the Allstar game. It doesn't matter if you're good or bad, it matters what your last name is. I won't let my son play because this will teach him the wrong lessons.

Big error

I'd like to comment on the $70,000 allotted for Robinson Architects to do feasibility studies for the new Grayslake community center. I think it's a big error in judgment to hire these same architects who did the "Taj Mahal" village hall and how poorly it was designed. The library is another example of a poor design. Please don't hire this man to design any more buildings in this city. Grayslake deserves better than this.

Not listening

Thank you to Bonnie Carter for her vote on the statewide referendum on gambling. Not all of us in Fox Lake want the riverboat. The village board should wake up. They keep saying they want the riverboat, but they're not listening to home-vote to protect us from the corruption going on here in our village board. They're keeping us citizens in the dark on a lot of issues. We need a statewide vote on this, the sooner the better.

Loved it

I loved the story on "Let it snow" about dogsledding. It was very informative. I do hope the county does change its mind to allow dogsledding on its trails. I was disappointed not more information was given on Malumet Rescue Organization, though.

Leave us alone

When is District 46 going to leave Avon on the Prairie and Estates of Eastlake alone? Isn't it enough that the middle school bus was taken away from us? Why make us the swing area for the school system? Let the new development swing, or let Hainesville build a school and leave us alone.

Short list?

Unfortunately, Island Lake Mayor Charles Amrich must have had a short list of running mates to choose for trustee. I suspect Robert Buckley's main purpose in running for village trustee is to keep the residents of Fox River Shores from using the common areas of which their assessments are supposedly being used to pay to maintain. Ironically, the furor over outlot B, which helped Mr. Buckley get elected to the Waterford Homeowners Association board of directors, happens to be in Mr. Buckley's backyard.

Abear's enjoyable

I'm calling about Donna Abear's column. I feel that the person who called in is terribly wrong. She is very enjoyable. Whoever it is must have a problem or is jealous.

From the heart

The following was written by an 11-year-old boy who wrote this from his heart. Everyone should read this because he sees things some of us don't:

I AM
I am an American
I wonder what it will be like in the year 2000.
I hear bells ringing.
I see the American flag waving.
I want world peace.
I am an American.

I pretend I am free.
I feel happy.
I touch the heart of people.
I worry about everyone.
I cry when we come back from war.
I am an American.
I understand it is hard
other places.
I say we can do it.
I dream of war ending.
I try to help.
I hope the world will soon
be free.
I am an American!

Skip the board

Island Lake has a new strip mall courtesy of Pickus Construction. How fortunate for them that they have a good friend in Mayor Charlie Amrich. There's no need to go through the messy, inconvenient meetings with zoning and planning committees, or bothering to present plans for consideration. Call Charlie and grease the wheels, no problem. A tip for developers interested in doing business in Island Lake, forget about the board meetings. The real business gets done at Amrich's service station after hours.

Shame, shame

Shame on you, Mayor Lumber! Selling Round Lake to the Pritzkers at the expense of the citizens. You added insult to injury by calling special meetings for voting on the Arrow (Mud) Lake development and cancelling them last minute so people wasted time going to cancelled meetings. Rather than having the already done deal vote take place at a regular meeting (oh, but then the board wouldn't have made the extra meeting money) you inconvenienced the public again for a meeting where the pledge of allegiance was the longest part! I hope the voters snub their noses at you in the election April 1st and give the village back to the hardworking community. You ought to be ashamed!

Deteriorating

I woke up the other morning and realized that the reason none of my representatives heard me was because this isn't a democracy, but run by big corporations and big money. A very sad state considering only 50% of people are voting. It only shows how the country is deteriorating as a democracy.

Changing their tune

This is about the lawsuit filed by some village residents and James Duggan, apartment building owner. Awhile ago, when I was in search of a new apartment, I looked at Sequoit Apartments, which Duggan owns. Although they were nice, I went somewhere else. When this lawsuit became public, I remembered I asked the manager if the trains going by next to the building made much noise and she said they didn't and that no one has complained. Is this what Duggan tells them to say to potential renters? This same manager has been quoted in the paper saying how loud the whistles are. It seems to me they have a big problem with the truth.

Making a profit

I wanted to let you know that if you are invited to a wedding at a local hall, to call ahead to see if you're covered by insurance for personal injury. I was at a wedding last fall and fell, slipped on a wet floor, and ended up with a pinched spinal cord. The hall is protected by a bill passed by our governor, keeping municipalities from being sued! If you have an accident, or are cut by glass, they are protected, and you have no recourse. I could end up in a wheelchair. Be sure you call the places you will attend. The halls still make a profit while protected by government.

No John Wayne

To the author of "Spin on Fax" in Jan. 17 issue of Lipservice, just come to a village board meeting and ask a question about village business. Speak to Mr. E; he believes in telling you anything as long as it shuts you up for the moment. We in Wauconda call this pathological lying. He tries to be a hero, and savior of the people. Forgive him as he tries to be a John Wayne, but comes across only as PeeWee Herman.

Thanks for help

Thanks to Lake Villa Post Office, specifically Pat Sweeney and Postmaster, Cal Andersen, for helping me with a lost letter incident. They went over and above the call of duty to help me and always with a reassuring friendly smile. The Lake Villa Post Office excels in customer service and can be an example to all area businesses.

Won't get answer

To the party of Fox Lake questioning Chief Busch on law enforcement of abandoned cars—You won't get a answer, but ask how to put a Harley Davidson together, and you'll get an answer in one minute!

Isn't it enough?

Please appreciate your daycare person. What do you want them to do? The more you do the more they expect. Parents: Isn't it enough that your child is taken care of, fed, clean and happy? But slip one time and, oh boy, you're in trouble!

Below the belt

In response to Alberta Meyer being fired from her county job, they had no idea why she had needed days off. Things (emergencies) come up. They put in over a full week. Its obvious we will have to put up with the slate that plays dirty. Slamming someone's personal life is low!

New slate

Hey, voters, if you vote for the new slate, are you sure Fox Lake will move forward? All they are doing is moving Fox Lake backwards. Check to see See LIPSERVICE page B15

Vote your conscience

Tim Osmond is running for supervisor in Antioch. He's an Antioch businessman. He sees dollar signs. I won't vote for Mr. Fields, either. Vote for someone who will lead us. Vote your conscience.

Be informed

To person who accused the Grayslake school board of being spiteful, you have every right to voice your opinion, but you need to accept the responsibility of being informed. That issue had already been submitted to the Dept. of Transportation, and was approved long before your comments were put in Lipservice.

Go forward, not back

Dist. 46 is in desperate need of a superintendent that puts children first. Her insensitive comments and eagerness to hang up on the parents shouldn't be tolerated. As a long time resident, she is not taking steps forward, and has touched every subdivision with heartache. Come on, residents of Dist. 46. We can reunite and change. Move forward peacefully and not backwards, where she's taking us.

Keep it up

Congratulations to the Grant Freshman Cheerleaders for winning first place in the Wildcat Invitational in Libertyville. Cheerleading is a sport and needs to be recognized as such. They have put in long hours to achieve their level of performance and a lot of athletic ability. Congratulations, girls! We're looking forward to the next class act at Stevenson in February. Keep up the good work.

Don't do it

This is to the person who wanted Lakeland to pull Donna Abear's column. I read it each week and truly love her sense of humor. I certainly hope they don't pull it. If Lakeland stops her articles, I will certainly cancel my subscription, as I love reading Lakeland's '90s "Erma Bombeck".

Reward offered

Can you help heal our friends' hearts? A family was devastated as the family pet was stolen shortly after the birth of a daughter. The family drove around endlessly trying to find their family pet. Jake was last seen on Jan. 5. A man was seen trying to sell Jake at a Cash Station in Barrington Hills for $100. Please help—Jake is an English Bulldog, and a Red Dog Beer lookalike. He's brown and white brindle, and two years old. He is very much missed and loved. The $1,000 reward may continue to grow as family and friends are offering this for his safe return. Call 847-639-2678.

Something to hide?

I read about the delay in request for school bus funding by Dist. 46. They may not want the state to be involved. It seems very interesting as it seems they may have something to hide if the state sees all the books.

Fan speaks out

Where have you gone all you Antioch basketball fans? The local gym seems almost empty as fast as the Antioch bench is quitting. The problem: Combine poor coaching with a double standard for certain players, and no positive encouragement for the rest of the team, and you get our current program. Athletic director, its time for a change now, you're ruining young talent.

Recycling is good

To the waste hauler who does not want to recycle, here's a couple tips for you. Call the direct marketing people to stop junk mail that comes into your house. Also, use the back side of papers that are already coming into your house, like flyers, homework, etc. instead of notepads. Newspapers work great as logs in the fireplace. Newspapers are great for cleaning glass and mirrors. Buy as many products as possible that have been recycled. Encourage government offices to do this, too. We all need to change our attitude, too. The more we demand those products, then there will be more to recycle, which has become very acceptable.

Change is coming

This is to inform all Grayslake Elementary District 46 parents of the changes that will be occurring for our children next school year. It seems the board has decided to cancel its contract with Grayslake Community High School for its bus service and has hired a service outside of Elkhorn, Wis., called Jones. Not only are they an hour away, what do we know about this company? My children have been driven by the same driver for years. They know her and she knows them. If they leave behind a backpack, gloves, etc., will Jones bring it back all the way from Wisconsin? I think not. It seems that the board is only looking at the almighty dollar and not the welfare of our children. They've spent our tax dollars without getting our view on the matter. I hope they reconsider their decision.

Be more accessible

My dad is handicapped and was driving his electric mobility scooter down Rollins Road. He was pulled over by a police officer and was told to get off the road and onto the sidewalk. In Round Lake, all the sidewalks have curbs and you can't drive over them. I feel we should make curves and ramps so people with disabilities can use the sidewalks and be safe.

Like it or leave it

I want to comment on the lawsuit filed by a few village residents and James Duggan, who owns apartments in Antioch and is an attorney. Duggan should have better knowledge as an attorney as to why Antioch can't do anything about train whistles. All these people should have an ounce of common sense about train whistles. Or, you could leave the good ol' U.S.A. if you don't like it.

Nobody's perfect

For the person who asked why Congress put the scumbag back as Speaker of the House, how perfect are you and everyone else on this earth? Pointing your finger can come back to you. Try to use common sense and think twice before you speak.

Put up a fence

After reading "Don't criticize" in the Jan. 24 issue, I feel compelled to publicly complain. Has anyone considered the fact that the majority of original homeowners who bought on Pheasant Ridge in Lake Zurich before Wal-mart was there, have moved? The rest of you who are now complaining and want the street closed, I say "too bad." You bought there knowing the situation and traffic flow. So, I, as a Lake Zurich resident and safe driver, did not and would not put your children at risk.

You did. Also, in today's society, why would you or anyone let your children be in front of a house unsupervised? My advice is to put up a fence and watch your children in the yard, where they belong.

Honest politicians?

Our great town of Fox Lake—you move in and you're here one week and get a ticket for no vehicle sticker without even a warning. Then we have a catering facility with their vehicles on Washington Street with no vehicle stickers. But the policemen have their ball there every year. Aren't our honest politicians great?

Great job

This goes to all the administration in Round Lake Park. The only retribution we have when it snows is that sooner or later, all the streets will be plowed. I live in Round Lake Park and this is the best I've ever seen any village pay more attention to the roads and give more care that the driving is the safest it can be. We think they're doing an outstanding job.

Teen drug use on the rise in Lake County

ALEC JUNG
Staff Reporter

Drugs use, particularly among teenagers appears to be on the rise.

Drug prevention experts acknowledge today there is new type of drug user much different than a decade ago especially among teenagers.

"They are very street wise," said Debi Leer, director of Bridgehouse, a clinic in Waukegan. "Most come from one parent families."

Leer added even drug education efforts seem to be failing some of these harder core youth.

"They know that it is harmful and have the facts, but they still want to experiment," Leer said.

Leer said some of the teens come from families who have a parent who is using drugs and encourages them to use as well. Some are taking to drug dealing as a way to make some quick money.

Bill Hetland, public relations manager of Northern Illinois Council on Substance Abuse (NICASA) said some experts believe parents use of drugs in the '60s may be a factor.

"They are very reluctant to be honest with their children about their drug use," Hetland said.

Hetland cited some current statistics which are very disturbing.

One of them is a study by the University of Michigan in 1995. This study which surveyed teens nationwide suggests drug use and experimentation among teens is on the rise.

In the study 23 percent of eighth-graders admitted to smoking marijuana and 34 percent of children aged 12 and under said they tried a cigarette and one-third of students up to 12th grade claimed they get drunk at least once a month.

A state study in 1995 revealed at least three-fourths of all high school seniors said they were drunk at least once, 50 percent had tried cigarettes and 45 have tried marijuana.

Leer said drug prevention techniques are continuing to evolve to cope with changing needs of potential drug users.

"We are trying more interactive things," Leer said.

She added the traditional group therapies are being scrapped in favor of methods which attempt to get the person more directly involved.

The sentiment was shared by Laurel Dahl, prevention specialist at NICASA. Dahl said education is being geared more towards the whole person and not just See DRUG USE page C2

Long Lake family welcomes four new arrivals

Quadruplets.

Four babies at once.

Few families have ever experienced the joy of welcoming four newborns into the world at one time—the Dague Family of Long Lake added their names to that exclusive list Monday.

Nancy and Ed Dague become parents of quadruplets delivered by cesarean section, Feb. 17.

The babies—one boy and three girls—were born between 6:05 and 6:09 p.m. at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge.

"Mother and babies are all doing fine," said Jere Weliver of Long Lake, the maternal grandfather. "We were there when they were born and got to see them about an hour later. They are absolutely beautiful."

The children were named late

Tuesday. They are: Alexander Edward, who weighed in at 4 pounds and 3/4 ounces; Megan Elizabeth, 3 pounds, 12 ounces; Katerina Lynn, 3 pounds and 2 and 1/2 ounces; and Shannon Morgan, 2 pounds and 12 3/4 ounces.

They were delivered at 33 weeks gestation and are the couple's first children.

"They are really just darling," said Jean Weliver, maternal grandmother. "It is really something to finally see them." Jean added that none of the babies appear to be identical at this time.

Nancy found out she was expecting quadruplets early on in her pregnancy, according to her mother. The 34-year-old occupational therapist at Lutheran General Hospital, did not want to know the gender of the babies prior to birth, but her mother and husband knew in order to do the shopping.

"Ed and I took care of a lot of the shopping needed for the babies," said Jean. "It was hard to keep it a secret, but we did."

Nancy has been on bedrest since mid-October and has received a great deal of help from the congregation at Indian Hill Chapel in Ingleside.

"They have been absolutely wonderful," said Jean. "They have brought over meals, done housework and helped with errands. They have been a tremendous amount of support for both of them. They have been so loyal."

The Dagues and Welivers have all lived at Long Lake for the past six years.

"My grandfather built a cabin here in 1910 and we had been coming up here for years," Jean said. "We decided to move here year-around six years ago."

As parents and next-door-neighbors, the Welivers hope to be a lot of help to the new parents.

"We have two other grandsons, but they live in Denver," Jean said. "We plan to be right there helping with the diapering, feeding and just doing whatever we can to be of help. I just hope my stamina holds out," she chuckled. "There are several other friends that have also volunteered to help out."

Ed Dague is an electrical engineer with Absolute Process Instruments in Mundelein.

Mother and babies are expected to remain at Lutheran General for a couple of weeks.

County agreement brings sewer relief savings to residents

Sewer relief has finally come to the North Hills subdivision in unincorporated Fremont Township at a cost less than anticipated.

Through the establishment of a special service area with the Lake County Board, the County will construct 1,200 feet of sewer from the subdivision south to connect with the Village of Mundelein sewer system. And, residents will pay about $100 less per year per home than originally projected for the new sanitary system.

The North Hills subdivision is located south of Winchester Road and east of Midlothian Road. There are 72 improved lots with homes plus three vacant lots.

"This is a great relief for the residents of North Hills," said Diana O'Kelly, Lake County board member for Dist. 10. "This is a sewer system that was cited by the EPA and has been failing for a long time."

Under the agreement, the County will issue $900,000 in unlimited ad valorem tax bonds at an interest rate of 5.6 percent, for a duration of 20 years. Lake County will levy homeowners a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds.

The estimated annual property tax impact on an average home assessed at $40,000 is $1,116 per year, or more than $100 less than originally estimated.

"We are looking at peer pressure and self esteem," Dahl said.

One program geared to help students with low self esteem has shown signs of success and its effectiveness convinced experts they need to look more at the individual and their ability to make decisions.

Dahl said many of the children which are at risk in becoming drug users may have difficulties at home that they are not responsible for.

"They didn't cause it, they can't cure it and they sure can't control it. So we teach them to care for themselves," Dahl said.

Although one key approach remains: "Trying to get to the child when they are still young," Leer said.

There doesn't seem to be a drug of choice or one in exceptionally high demand at this time.

"Alcohol is still the major problem," Hetland said. He added that teen smoking use appears to be running ahead of adult tobacco use.

rates than what we had previously had estimated, we are pleased to have been able to work out this arrangements for the residents," said Robert Neal, chairman of the public service committee of the Lake County board.

Lake County Public Works Director Al Galantha said the County worked cooperatively with the Village of Mundelein, the Mundelein Park and Recreation District, the North Hills Homeowners Association and Vickery Manor Service Corporation to plan the special service area. The area has been served by Vickery Manor Service Corporation Sewage Treatment Facility, a privately owned company.

"The residents have been extremely supportive of the service area," said O'Kelly. "The village of Mundelein and the park district have been very cooperative through this whole process."

The contract for the sewer line has been awarded to Thelen Sand and Gravel in Antioch. Work is scheduled to begin by April 1 and be completed by June 1.

The three vacant lots owned by Vickery Manor Service Corporation will be donated to the Mundelein Park and Recreation District, as will the two-acre sewage treatment site. — by RHONDA BURKE

Two accidental fires

LINDENHURST—Two structural fires in the village appear to be caused by accidents.

The first, a blaze Feb. 12 at the Mallard Ridge Apartments, 260 Dittmer Avenue, likely destroyed one apartment unit, according to police reports.

This fire was allegedly started by the occupant who apparently fell asleep on her couch with a cigarette in her hand. She awoke and found the couch on fire and was unable to extinguish the flames.

Lake Villa Township Fire Department was able to put out the blaze.

The other fire on Feb. 15, was apparently caused when gas leaking from a motorcycle ignited when it came in contact with a kerosene heater at 526 Forest View Drive.

There was extensive damage to the garage and attic area. No one was injured in either fire. —by ALEC JUNG

Arrow Lake plan wins 4-2

ROUND LAKE—Pritzker's controversial, 858-acre Arrow Lake development won final approval at a special board meeting in Round Lake on Feb. 13. Two and one half years of sometimes heated negotiations ended in a vote that took less than five minutes. The swiftness of the village board's decision left several audience members breathless.

Several audience members were a little upset no discussion or public opinion was given at the special board meeting.

Mayoral candidate Patrick Smythe, who was removed from the April ballot, will ask a judge to reverse the village board's decision and send it back to the Plan Commission.

"The Planning Commission wasn't given a full opportunity to review the changes, stated Smythe. There is too much back room negotiating."

After the meeting, Village Building Commissioner Ray Wolfel reviewed tentative plans for the 858-acre development. The development is located at Route 134 and Fairfield Road angling southwest across Nippersink Road to Wilson Road.

Dist. 3 holds referendum

BEACH PARK—On Tuesday Feb. 25 voters residing in Beach Park School District 3 will have the last word on whether the district may increase its education fund tax rate to purchase items such as textbooks, which it says are sorely needed.

The district is asking for a tax increase from the state maximum rate of 1.9 percent to 2.70 percent per every $100 of equalized assessed value.

Superintendent Karen Campbell said if the referendum doesn't pass the district is looking at cutting $235,000 from the education fund budget.

This is the district's fourth time appealing to the voters and the turnout has never been high enough for their increase to be approved. The last election in November of 1996 brought a 41 percent vote in favor of the increase.

The election will be held Feb. 25 due to a loophole that allows the district to hold an election because a primary election is being held in one of the precinct's the district encompasses located in Waukegan.

The board of education decided to take advantage of the opportunity to hold the election in February because if approved the revenue will begin coming in this June. The district is strapped financially due to rising enrollment which has increased 22 percent since 1991. Because of the state tax cap and the need to serve more students with the same amount of revenue, their spending per pupil has declined and they now spend 38 percent less per student than the state average. —by ELIZABETH EAKEN

Grayslake High faces crunch

GRAYSLAKE—Grayslake Community High School has received the results of a detailed demographics study they commissioned.

The study completed by Dr. John Kasarda of North Carolina came up with three enrollment chart projections. If growth occurs at the rate he has forecasted the high school enrollment for the 2000-01 school year will number approximately 1,700 students and by 2006-07 it will rise to 2,743 students. Current enrollment is 1,200.

Superintendent Ray Novak said the district needs to decide on the course of action to accommodate the growth.

"Now that we know how large we're going to get we'll have to make a decision by July," said Novak. "We have to know by July to develop a battle plan otherwise we'll be out of room in three years."

Currently the district's architect Legat Architects is conducting a master plan study and Kasarda's study will be utilized in coming up with a recommended course of action for the school. —by ELIZABETH EAKEN

Residents fight used car plan

GURNEE—Opposition continues to intensify as residents of Westgate subdivision planned to state their case in opposition to a state-of-the-art used car facility planned for the north side of their property.

Auto Nations USA is proposing to use about a third of 64 acres at Dilley Road and Route 132 in Gurnee. Auto Nations and Cypress Equities made a revised pitch for necessary zoning changes at a Gurnee Plan Commission meeting this week.

"Residents are objecting to being next to a used car sales lot. There are traffic and flooding concerns," resident Roger O'Connor, a member of the Westgate Homeowners Board, said.

The homeowners held an informal meeting with Auto Nations USA at Gurnee Village Hall. There were no significant changes presented, but the height of a berm will be increased, O'Connor said.

Residents have been circulating petitions and have gained close to 1,000 signatures. They were expecting an en masse turnout at the Feb. 19 meeting, the second plan commission hearing on the proposal.

"Traffic is a concern because it is hard to turn from I-94 to Dilley Road," he said. —by STEVE PETERSON

Students, teachers on the air

LIBERTYVILLE—Two fifth-grade teachers and a few of their pupils have a date at Jones Cable next week. On Feb. 25 they are scheduled to tape the premiere episode of "Blast Off With Math and Science."

Rockland School Principal Marsha Hestad produced a similar show in Bensenville. It was inspired, she said, by a program called "Countdown" from Loyola University.

"We've found the parents are very excited; they're learning along with the children," Hestad said. "We wanted something that was a quality cable show, a quality education program." —by SUZIE REED

Citizens earn village support

ISLAND LAKE—The village board has lent its support to a group of residents who are opposing a condemnation lawsuit presented by the Island Lake Sanitary Sewer District.

The district wants to condemn 38 acres of unincorporated land adjacent to several homes in the Fox River Shores subdivision, and use the property for an expansion of its facilities and sludge fields.

Residents believe the expansion will devalue their property values, quality of life and present potential health hazards.

More than 70 residents attended the board's Feb. 13 meeting, where the resolution was approved, opposing the land use. The village has asked to convene a special board meeting with the sanitary sewer district board of directors next week for further discussion. —by SPENCER SCHEIN

Crash victim recuperating

LAKE ZURICH—A Barrington woman was upgraded to fair condition Feb. 18 at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge, where she is recuperating from injuries suffered in a three-vehicle traffic accident involving a car, a van and a truck, authorities said.

Sandra L. Thornhill, 51, was driving a 1988 Porsche, which was hit by a 1993 Ford van that was stuck by a semitractor trailer truck on Route 12 and the entrance of Kmart, 225 S. Rand Rd., at around 8:45 a.m. Feb. 12, reports said.

Police determined the driver of the 1994 Ford truck, Thomas G. Leverick, 61, of Deerfield, had blacked out, causing the truck to skid out of control as it was traveling southbound on Route 12, police said. The truck, carrying gravel, struck the van, stopped at the red light at the entrance, with the van then knocked into the Porsche, trapping Thornhill inside the vehicle.

Lake Zurich Firefighters had to cut the roof and both doors off the sports car in order to free Thornhill, officials said.

Leverick was charged with improper lane usage by the Lake Zurich Police Department, and was issued warnings from Illinois State Police inspectors for two minor equipment problems on his truck, and for driving while tired, police said. —by SPENCER SCHEIN

LIBERTYVILLE—When Trustee Duane Laska takes over as mayor of the village, as he is expected to do after an uncontested election April 1, he will have three more citizens to answer to. His wife Patti delivered healthy triplets last month. The boys, named Kyle, Mark and Brett, join their 2-year-old brother Matthew in the renovated Laska home.

Electoral board invalid

ROUND LAKE BEACH—It's back to the electoral drawing board for Round Lake Beach Mayor Ralph Davis' "Beach 2000" slate with the Lake County Circuit Court Feb. 14 decision that the local electoral board of Feb. 3 was improperly formed and that a new one must be created.

The winning argument presented by attorney Mathias Delort was that the Election Code allows for only the second most senior trustee to substitute for any one of the mayor, clerk or most senior trustee on an electoral board.

Delort argued that the seniority rankings of Trustees Gina Miosi, Richard Hill (tied for third and fourth) and Michael Francis (fifth) indicated that they should not have sat on the board, but that the issue should have been directed to the County's Chief Judge to make public appointments.

The issue was referred to Chief Judge Raymond McKoski on Feb. 18 to form a new electoral board. It was later announced that the new board will consist of local attorneys, but the names were not released before press time.

The new board will not sit before Feb. 21 and must conduct a hearing by Feb. 26. —by JEFF PATERSON

Chief named for task force

LAKE COUNTY—Lt. Charles Fagan of the Sheriff's Department has been selected to assume command of the Major Crimes Task Force. The group was formerly under the direction of Undersheriff Gary Del Re, who now serves as Lake County sheriff.

Fagan has been an assistant commander of the task force since its inception.

"Lt. Fagan will have very big shoes to fill, but we're all very confident that he will do so in a manner which continues to establish the task force as one of the premier investigative entities in the State of Illinois," said Vernon Hills Police Chief Gary Kupsak, chairman of the task force board of directors.

Strategies hinged on downtown life

History supports the wary eye being cast by merchants in neighboring communities on prospects of North Barrington Collection, a proposed mega mall containing glitzy tenants, becoming a reality.

The planned 1.2 million square foot facility most certainly would have an impact on retailers in Lake Zurich, Wauconda and Barrington.

They have begun planning strategies to cope with the proposed shopping behemoth for which approval now is being sought. Joel Brumlik, executive director of the Lake Zurich Chamber of Commerce, thinks Lake Zurich currently with approximately 2 million square feet of retail space is positioned well to battle new competition.

Merchants in southwest Lake County are viewing models of communities elsewhere in the county, notably Libertyville, that have rebounded from competition of regional shopping centers. MainStreet Libertyville Inc., a not-for-profit revitalization organization, has attracted national attention for stimulating reinvestment and new job creation in a shopping hub staggered years ago by Hawthorn Center and then impacted later by Gurnee Mills.

Along with Waukegan, Libertyville and Grayslake were stung severely by the first wave of shopping center construction in this locality when Lakehurst was built three decades ago. It took 20 years for Libertyville and Grayslake to recover from that initial shock and Waukegan just now is getting around to injecting new life in the county's once No. 1 shopping stem, Genesee Street.

One lesson to be learned from the waves of mega-mall development is that traditional mainstreet merchants always get hurt. Another lesson is that local political leaders can't be stinting in efforts to keep their downtowns economically and socially viable. In our suburban environment, a lively downtown with attractive shops is of inestimable value.

Challenging virus infects elections

There are lessons to be learned from the fall-out of the "challenge virus" that has infected so many villages and townships. Never before have such a large number of local electoral boards convened or have the Lake County courts been cluttered with legal challenges to the local election process.

In Lake Villa Township, for example, every township candidate for offices on the April 1 ballot was brought to inquiry. Challenges have run the gamut from serious to frivolous, even bizarre in some cases. Round Lake Beach Mayor Ralph Davis, seeking reelection, has been involved by opponents in what has become known as the case of the "missing paper clip." In the Village of Round Lake, Trustee Barbara Lumber voted as a member of the local election board to boot out the opponent of her husband, Mayor Jim Lumber.

Pressed with the need to iron out challenge questions as quickly as possible, county judges have cleared their dockets. Dozens of other cases have been delayed or put on hold.

Partisans are pushing their cases, some with merit and others merely nitpicking technicalities, to the limit.

First lesson: Every election is serious business. Prospective candidates need to acquaint themselves with the nominating process, down to the most minute detail. There should be no flaws in the filing of petitions. Vernon Hills Trustee Don Hook rightly challenged an opponent's petition, found to contain signatures of unregistered residents, printed names instead of signatures and 12 names obtained illegitimately. We can't image on what grounds candidate Bill Wolff would appeal. But he says he's thinking about it.

Second lesson: The integrity of the electoral process must be protected. Attempts to even skirt the law cannot be condoned.

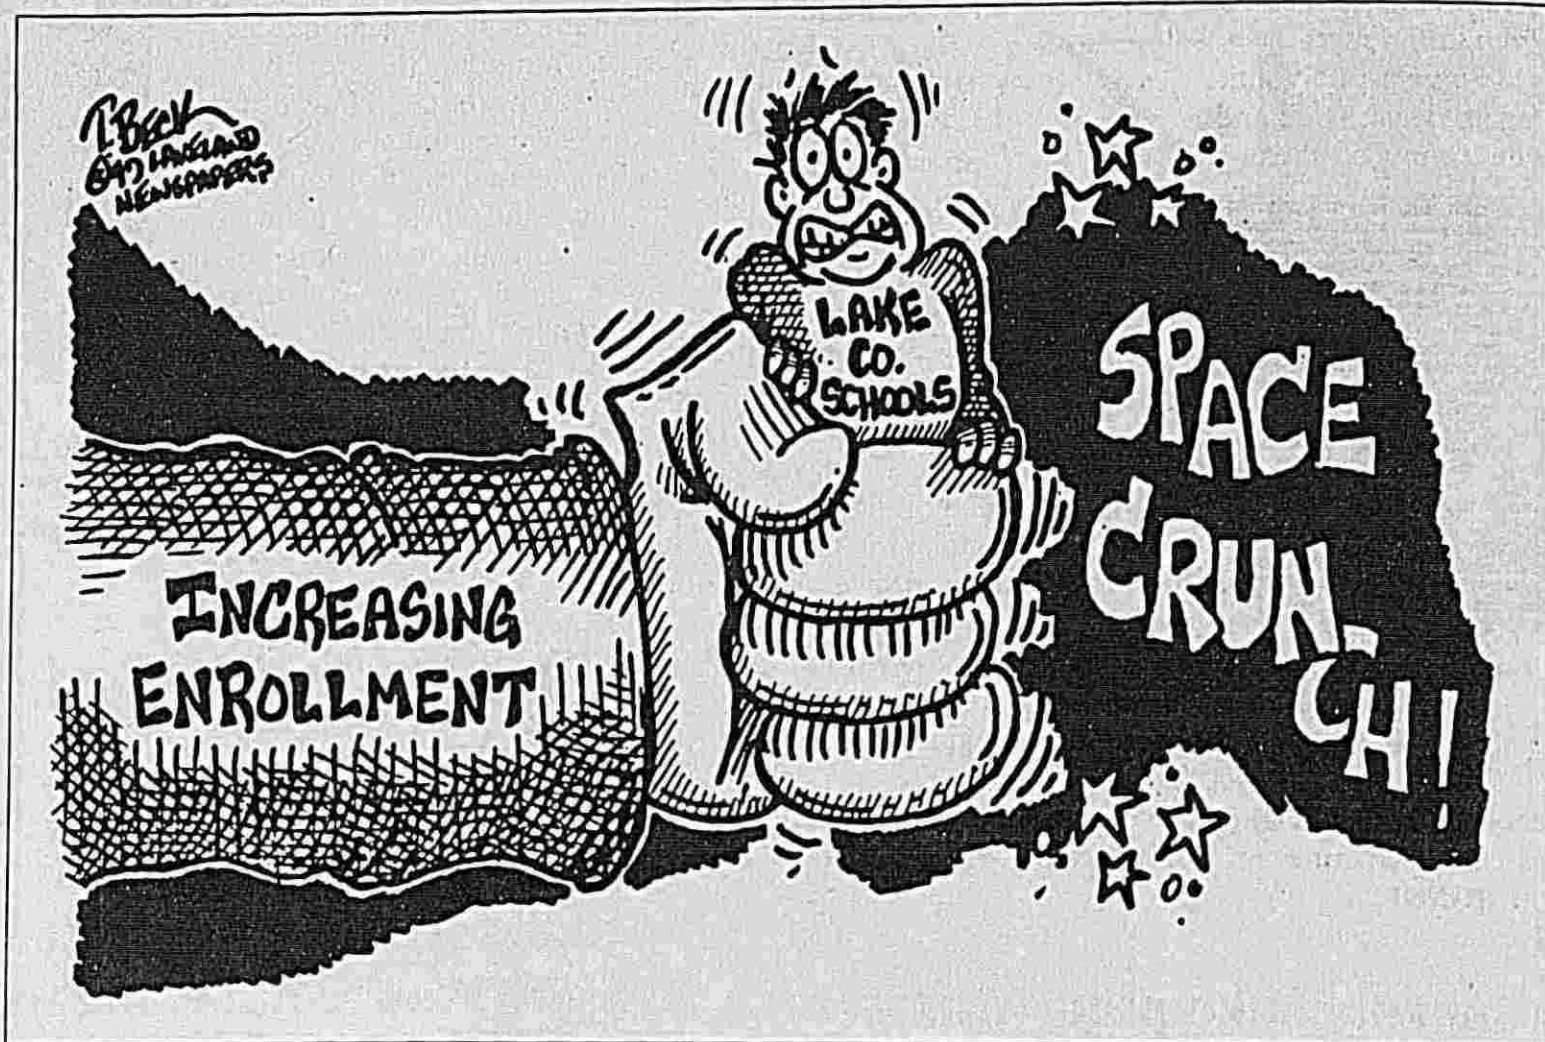

Third lesson: Partisanship should not prevent access to the ballot. Even known opponents should be assisted by sitting officials in the qualification process. There is plenty of time for partisanship during the campaign. The petitioning process should not be a game of "gotcha." Lake Villa challengers had second thoughts, dropping their action in preference for electioneering the old-fashion way—at the ballot box.

Short of an out-and-out intent to defraud, we have found the plethora of election challenges this year highly distasteful, detracting and demeaning. In far too many cases, the election process itself has been held up to ridicule in the eyes of the general public. When this happens, everyone loses.

Student dress codes finding acceptance

BILL SCHROEDER

Publisher

There's a comical side to all the fuss over establishing student dress codes. Students always have had dress codes, only they were called "style."

As more and more schools ponder the advantages of dress codes, support for uniforms is growing, especially for elementary pupils. Anything would be an improvement over baggy pants and droopy sweatshirts. The grunge look.

In the dim dark past of my youth, there wasn't a student dress code, but all the boys wore corduroy slacks, open collar sport shirts and V-neck sweaters. The girls wore above-the-knee skirts, bulky sweaters, bobbi socks and saddle shoes. If you didn't wear those "uniforms," you were the equivalent of latter era jerks, dorks and nerds.

Some administrators and parents are looking at a middle ground where a "semi" uniform is adopted—conservative garb with specific color combinations. The idea behind uniformity of dress is to enhance discipline and academic performance, eliminate costly style demands, and lessen gang influence.

Makes a lot of sense, doesn't it?

CONGRATULATIONS—Dave Lofreddo was named Researcher of the Year at Abbott Laboratories. A native of Fox Lake, Dave is a Grant High graduate and an alum of the University of Illinois. He did his doctoral work in chemistry at the University of Minnesota.

STAR BOUND—Jason Smith, a native of Libertyville, is in Hollywood working on advancing his acting career. Smith, a Carmel High and Purdue University grad, compiled an impressive string of modeling assignments in Chicago while studying drama. He formerly was employed in sales.

HISTORY—In being elected president of the University of Illinois board of trustees, Sue Gravenhorst of Lake Forest is believed to be the first Lake County resident to hold the post. Gravenhorst was elected to three consecutive terms as a Republican before trusteeships became appointive by the governor by action of the Illinois General Assembly.

MOVING—After being paid to live in a mansion complete with white pillars and marble baths, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frank have to move. The Franks have been resident managers of the fabled E.J. Lehman estate, Rte. 83, Lake Villa, that soon will be remodeled as the meeting center of a new senior citizens condo complex.

Frank, a real estate broker, is a walking history book on the famous Lehman family. The German immigrant father, founder of Chicago's turn-of-the-century department store, the Fair, built a separate mansion for each of his five children along Grand Ave. Oldest son, E.J., considered the large home surrounded by farm fields and a private race track as a "summer cottage."

Lehman heirs last used the home in the early 1960s when it was sold to real estate magnets H. Harold Anderson and Paul Brendel, who housed their prize black Angus cattle in barns on the grounds. Later a major Chicago bank acquired the property, holding it until sold to a Portland, Maine, development company specializing in upscale condo apartments for senior citizens.

Elect quality

Editor:

Lake Zurich is a unique community comprised of solid long-term residents, newer upwardly mobile families, and a staunch representation of the true village that it once was. Our village has held on to its unique character despite bitter inroads by overdevelopment and choking traffic, much of which has come in the past four years.

In order to maintain its quality of life for residents, Lake Zurich's leaders must severely restrict residential and commercial growth. Its mayor must begin to follow the established guidelines set forth in the Comprehensive Land Use Plan. Zoning code changes and variances for developers' short term benefits need to be either denied or given long, hard looks. Our mayor must have the long-term welfare for Lake Zurich fixed primarily in his or her mind.

Unfortunately, our current mayor has shown disregard for the future of Lake Zurich, its residents and its schools by welcoming extensive growth during her regime. It is time to put our village first, to finally elect a mayor who is knowledgeable and honestly dedicated to the welfare of Lake Zurich and its citizens. It is See LETTERS page C5

PARTY LINES

Who is motivating voters in Soil, Water Dist. election?

Party Lines, the Lakeland Newspapers column of political opinion, is prepared from staff reports.

Some astute political watchers are calling last week's Soil and Water District election a show of power between anti-growth and pro-development forces.

Raftis

Former county board chairman Bob Depke and Farm Bureau Manager Dick Raftis were said to have motivated farmers and other big land holders to get out the vote to keep "tree huggers" off the board.

The real issue driving the little talked about election is that the board will now be assisting the Army Corps of Engineers with inspections at various Lake County sites. Pro-development forces want to ensure there is no delay in permit approvals; anti-growth forces will obviously opt for environmental protection.

Well-known political activist Susan Zingle of Wadsworth is one of the two "tree-huggers" defeated in the election.

Zingle says she was hoping to become more educated about the scientific work of the district and work to educate land owners.

Former district board members include Sandy Cole of Grayslake, who defeated Raftis for election to the county board; and Al Westerman, who defeated Depke for election to the board.

Porter for Senator—Rumors are again circulating veteran Congressman John Porter may consider a run for the U.S. Senate seat in 1998. Republicans see Porter as a moderate who can capture Democratic support. No word yet from the Porter camp if there is any truth to the idea.

However, don't look for Al Salvi to make a repeat run for the seat, he's probably best suited as a viable candidate to replace the enduring Phil Crane, if he should ever decide to call it quits.

Joint 'first'—In what is believed to be a first, members of the Zion and Winthrop Harbor councils coordinated their meetings to honor public safety officers involved in aiding Zion Police Cpl. Ves Hampton who was shot in the line of duty.

The Zion council presented recognitions of valor to Hampton and three firefighter/paramedics Don Zumalt, Denny Decker and Bill Haske who came to Hampton's aid when he was in danger of bleeding to death. Then council members recessed and traveled to Winthrop Harbor to honor part-time police officer Timothy Fag who provided first aid to the fallen Zion officer.

Other Zion officers commended included Julle Fragale, Warren Ferry, Tito Mercado, David Gort and Cpl. Steven Dumyahn. Hampton, still recovering from the Jan. 11 shooting, attended ceremonies in a wheelchair.

Not excited—West Deerfield Township Republican leaders aren't paying much attention to the fuss being created by Jack Koenig of Del Mar Woods who charged he was "frozen" out of a trustee spot on the party slate for April 1. They don't consider him a true blue Republican. Koenig is a former Ross Perot organizer.

...

Shadow—Holdover Grayslake Trustee Bob Russell has a unique role in the spring election. Russell is serving as a monitor of the public appearances of Gunta Haddag who is challenging incumbent Mayor Pat Carey who is campaigning for reelection.

Russell

Rarity—U.S. Sen. Carol

Moseley-Braun had a rare contact with Lake County constituents when she posed for photos with a group of Zion-Benton High School students attending the second inauguration of President Clinton. You can count on one hand the times Moseley-Braun has visited the county since elected in 1994. The trip was organized by social studies teacher Bruce Hanson, a resident of Lake Zurich and former County Board member.

...

Four-way tussle—Because she has the support of retiring Mayor Bobby E. Thompson, Evelyn Alexander is rated an edge in the North Chicago primary for mayor Tuesday, Feb. 25.

Other mayoral aspirants are well known to voters. A businessman, Jerry Johnson, is making his fourth run for mayor. David El Aboudi, North Chicago water superintendent an businessman, and Ald. Bette Thompson round out the quarter of candidates.

All will be on Democratic ballot. No Republicans filed for mayor.

No candy—A Party Lines helper supplied an answer to a question raised here several weeks ago whether former County Board Rep. Ed Fojtik and his wife, Judy, would hand out heart candy boxes at the annual Grant Township Lincoln Day dinner as they had for a number of years. They didn't.

also time to add to the trustees who are honestly dedicated to the long-term quality of life for all Lake Zurich citizens.

The Village First Party offers exemplary candidates who will work to restore the quality of life desired by Lake Zurich residents, who will increase accessibility of government officials who will seek resident input regularly. Jim Kirschke and his slate of Mark Hutton, Michael Talbett, Steve McEvoy and Karen Steffens stand for the common good of the people of Lake Zurich now and in the future. They are dedicated to open government and effecting positive change for the village.

Don't want 'mall town'

Editor:

After reviewing the Village of North Barrington's Comprehensive Plan, there is absolutely nothing in it to allow this sort of development in our village. This document was written to specifically guide the village officials in important decisions such as this one before the board.

Now, the Taubman Company has suddenly challenged all that. Mr. Heckman, et al, have aptly presented a plan of what they think the community needs. I guess they haven't seen this comprehensive plan. What they really care about is making money from the shopping mall, not the history or future of the community.

The developer has alluded that they will take their mall up the road, or even stay at the proposed site and build through the county to try and convince the trustees to vote "yes." Their argument is that because big commercialism is the only way to survive and all other communities are doing it—so why shouldn't North Barrington join in? It is as though the tail is wagging the dog. Who is deciding the village's future here: The legacy of past and present village officials or the developer?

This is not a good deal for the Village of North Barrington. The proposed revenues will be countered by many expenses and other less tangible items, most importantly the tarnished North Barrington reputation from being perceived as an distinctive residential village to a "mall town."

Porter vote surprising

Editor:

Imagine my surprise to discover that Rep. John Porter favors a Clinton Administration resolution (H.J. RES. 36) that would allow spending of an additional $123 million during the current fiscal year, on the administration's overseas population-control program, which promotes the legalization and expansion of abortion.

Although the Porter office is quick to point out that the Helm's Amendment of 1973 already prohibits the use of foreign aid funds "for abortions," but in reality, the Congressman and everyone in his district should know that the Helm's Amendment merely prevents the direct use of U.S. population-control aid to pay for abortion procedures. The Helm's Amendment has not prevented the Clinton overseas abortion crusade. The Administration is providing massive funding to organizations that openly boast of their effectiveness in undermining pro-life laws and expanding access to abortion on demand, the chief among these being the London-based International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF).

Don't care about lake

Editor:

The majority of the people who reside in Lake Zurich do enjoy the lake one way or another. At one time, Lake Zurich was turning into a weed-filled marsh. Because of the dedication and concern of some people, that situation turned around. It took big effort and money.

The village of Lake Zurich pays nothing toward the maintenance of the lake, the stocking of fish, and weed control. The testing of water is done by the Lake Zurich Owners Assn. The dredging done in front of private lake front properties is paid for by the property owners.

A comprehensive study done in 1993 by the Lake County Health Dept., stated, "To maintain the quality of the lake requires dredging periodically. It is necessary for the village to carry out its responsibility."

The question of the water adjacent to it's land such as Paulus Park, Paulus Park Channel and Breezewald Park has been presented many times at the Lake Zurich village hall trustee's meetings. No action has been taken.

It seems our mayor and some of our trustees do not feel the lake is important.

Condemnation questioned

Editor:

As a resident of Island Lake and the Fox River Shores Development Phase VIII (Porten's Subdivision), I am concerned about the Sanitary District's plans for the future expansion and the proposed condemnation of the Pesz property which abuts my neighborhood.

I have reviewed the minutes from the Sanitary District's Board meetings from Jan. 11, 1994 through Dec. 10, 1996 and have attached extracts from the meetings which concern this parcel. (Note: January 1997 minutes have not been made available to the public yet.) While it is clear that the district was in negotiations with the Pesz' for an 8-acre parcel, it is not clear what the impetus for moving to condemn all 38 acres was, especially in light of Joe Pesz granting easements to the Sanitary District for further development to the south in Fox River Valley Gardens.

Nowhere in the minutes is there any mention or consideration of the fact that this 38-acre parcel fronts on two sides of a residential neighborhood, nor does it address the impact on the residents. The minutes do mention issues related to ammonia treatment, pH levels, and high metals content relating to zinc and copper; again there is no mention of impact on the surrounding area.

There are several issues which I would like to see addressed in the near future:

1. Why didn't the district move to purchase the original 8-acres from the Pesz' at $35,000 acre when a cost justification for the price is stated in the minutes? Is the move to condemn all 38 acres a punitive action taken by the district? Note: The "appraised" price was $25,000 per acre, which the Pesz' contested. Residential real estate at that time was going at a market value between $45,000 and 50,000 per half-acre. The district's minutes also mention an offer of $35,000 per acre from Mr. Pickus which would indicate that the Pesz' asking price of $35,000 per acre was within the market price for the land.

2. What measures will be taken to compensate the residents of Porten's Subdivision for their decreased home values and lengthier resale periods once the district takes over the parcel?

3. What are the health issues and risks involved with this site being next to a residential neighborhood? Note: Minutes indicate concern for ammonia levels, metals content for zinc, copper, etc. They also note that the 38 acres could sustain their sludge dumping needs for the next 20 years. What do we do until then? And what becomes of the land after that? What impact will run off from the operation affect Cotton Creek Marsh, a protected wetland? Mayor Amrich told some of the neighbors who have called him that the land will be a park, but this time table and the purpose stated in the minutes does not fit in with his statement.

Send in the clowns

Editor:

The Kangaroo court proceedings orchestrated by ex-Round Lake Beach Mayor Carl Schrimpf and his lackeys have not only deprived Round Lake Beach citizens of the right to have the candidate of their choice on the ballot, but have also made Round Lake Beach the laughing-stock of Illinois.

Will the citizens of Round Lake Beach have to suffer again at the hands of Schrimpf—the man whose 20 year previous administration is widely accredited with earning Round Lake Beach the title "armpit of Lake County?" God help us.

Time and attitude play critical role for success

Two men were working at a construction site as a young boy passed by. The boy watched with interest as the men built a brick wall. After a few minutes, he approached one of the workmen. "What are you doing?" he asked.

The worker answered without looking up. "I'm laying bricks until the five o'clock whistle blows," he said.

The boy walked to the other end of the wall and asked the second worker what he was doing. With a friendly smile the man replied, "Son, I'm building an office building. Someday soon a company will locate here and become successful. I will have a part in their success."

There is a great lesson about time and attitude in this little story. We can either lay bricks until five o'clock or build buildings to help others become more successful.

Brick laying is actually a good analogy to life. We all have our "bricks" to work with every day. In fact, we all have one brick in common. It is a time we call minutes.

Recently, I heard a little poem that expresses this though beautifully.

*I have only just a minute,
Only 60 seconds in it.
Forced upon me, can't refuse it,
Didn't seek it, didn't choose it,*

*But, it's up to me to use it.
I'm a sucker if I lose it.
Give account if I abuse it.
Just a tiny little minute,
But, eternity is in it.*

of the most important characteristics of success.

In this column, I'd like to focus on the time factor. Days, weeks and years can all be broken down into those little time bricks we call minutes. How we use our minutes will shape our success. Here are some tips for getting more out of your minutes.

Tips for "minute" management

- Develop an attitude of time control. You are the only person who decides how to use your minutes. Don't let others sidetrack you from your success.

- Set aside time for planning. Planning allows you to look at your future as if it were today. You can chart a course of action today that will guarantee your success tomorrow.

- Begin with the end in mind. This is one of the seven habits from Stephen Covey's 7 Habits of Highly Effective People. See TIME page C7

Steakhouse plans active role in community

Outback Steakhouse holds fundraiser for LaCasa

An Australian emphasis can be found at the Outback Steakhouse, located in NorthRidge Plaza, at Route 132 and I-94 in Gurnee, which is now open for business.

STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

The newly opened Outback Steakhouse in Gurnee figures to be an active participant in the community.

The restaurant officially opened on Tuesday, but got its start in community involvement the night before.

It held a fund-raiser for LaCASA, the Lake County Council Against Sexual Assault.

"Each month we select one major project for a large charity event," Marco Mariles, a manager at Outback Steakhouse, said.

The goal was to raise $5,000 to help LaCASA, which is building a new building in Gurnee.

The steakhouse with an Australian accent is located in NorthRidge Plaza, at Route 132 and I-94 in Gurnee. Employees are called "Outbackers" and the Australian emphasis can be seen in many locations.

There is no traditional lunch hour there and food is cooked homemade. Hours are: 4 to 10:30 p.m. Monday - Thursday; Friday 4 to 11:30 p.m. and Sunday 1 to 9 p.m.

"Steaks are prepared with 17 different seasonings and stirred on a flat top grill," Mariles said.

The Gurnee location is the 377th Outback Steakhouse to be opened, the 10th in the Chicago area. The Florida based firm began in 1988.

Mariles said the restaurant works with schools to recognize teachers and students.

"In our St. Charles, Mo. location, we brought in a needy family and they had a meal on us," he said.

Steak prices can range from $8.95 to $17.95 for a 20-ounce Porterhouse.

Staff had a chance to see and taste test most of the menu during a Thursday training session.

"They all got a chance to sample it so when a customer asks, they can say they found it to be good. We told them not to eat at home that day, Mariles said jokingly.

Pastas to pork chops are also on the menu.

The opening gives Gurnee area steak lovers a handful of choices, led by the main choice between Backyard Steakpit in Grandwood Park to Lone Star Steakhouse in Gurnee Mills.

The management team at Outback Steakhouse includes Richard Callahan as partner, Ross Steger as manager and Ruben Delhorno as kitchen manager.

For more information on the Gurnee location, call 599-1300.

Abbott Laboratories to seek labeling for protease inhibitor use in children

Abbott Laboratories has submitted to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) a label recommendation for the use of Norvir in the treatment of children with HIV and AIDS.

"We are pleased to be able to take what we learned from the rapid development of Norvir in adults and apply it to the treatment of children," says Andre Pernet, Ph.D., vice president of pharmaceutical products research and development at Abbott Laboratories. "As a result, we were able to seek pediatric use of Norvir very quickly."

The data supporting this submission are from an ongoing Phase I/II pediatric study being conducted by a team of scientists at the HIV and AIDS Malignancy Branch of the National Cancer Institute in collaboration with Abbott Laboratories. Interim results from the study indicate that Norvir can increase patient's CD4 cell counts and can decrease the amount of HIV circulating in the blood (plasma HIV RNA).

In the study, researchers are examining HIV-infected children with either no prior therapy, progressive disease, or toxicity to another antiretroviral regimen. Four dose levels of a liquid formulation, ranging from 250 milligrams/m² to 400 milligrams/m², were given orally, twice daily, and evaluated in two age groups: children under age 2 and children 2 and older. Norvir was given alone for the first 12 weeks, then in combination with zidovudine and/or didanosine. Medications contraindicated for the use with Norvir were prohibited.

Forty-four patients have completed at least four weeks of study and were included in the submission. Two additional patients who had not yet reached four weeks of study were not included in the submission. By week eight of monotherapy, the CD4 count had increased by a mean of 51 to 132 cells per cubic millimeter in the children across the four dose levels. Plasma HIV RNA levels decreased rapidly from baseline by more than 90 percent by four weeks and the mean change remained below baseline at 24 weeks.

In the study, the most common adverse events attributed to Norvir were diarrhea (60 percent), vomiting (48 percent), and abdominal pain (45 percent). Three patients discontinued due to elevated liver enzymes and six patients discontinued due to gastrointestinal symptoms of fatigue.

Prentiss Properties Trust breaks ground for spec building in Vernon Hills

Prentiss Properties Trust has broken ground for 385 Fairway Drive, a 136,200-square-foot office and industrial complex located within Continental Executive Parke near Townline Road and Milwaukee Avenue in north suburban Vernon Hills.

The new 6.4-acre development will include build-to-suit office space and truck docks as well as 200 parking spaces, to accommodate up to three tenants. Bays will average 40 feet by 48 feet with a clear height of 28 feet. Completion is scheduled for June 1997.

Vernon Hills Mayor Roger Byrne participated in the groundbreaking ceremony, along with Prentiss Properties' Vice President Dan Cushing and Marketing Director Scott Pfisterer. Other members of the project team include general contractor FCL Builders of Itasca and architect Timothy Morgan and Associates of Lincolnshire.

"The expansion program for Continental Executive Parke demonstrates confidence in the continued strong performance of the Lake County industrial market," said Larry Krueger, managing director of Prentiss Properties.

"This building is being developed to meet the space demands of warehouse users requiring 35,000 square feet or more within a quality business park environment."

Continental Executive Parke, a 525-acre complex developed by Prentiss Properties, has already attracted existing tenants such as Computer Discount Warehouse, American Hotel Register Co., Cole-Parmer, Learning Resources, PNC Mortgage, Allstate Insurance, Omron Healthcare Inc. and Moore Business Forms Inc.

The master-planned business park features a hotel, shops, restaurants, a 17-acre Golf Learning Center, and eight miles of landscaped jogging trails adjoining Deerpath Park recreational facilities.

Glenn Beall to be inducted into Plastics Hall of Fame

Glenn Beall will be inducted into the Plastics Hall of Fame in June. Widely recognized for his contributions to plastics design, Beall has served in many roles: engineer, inventor, consultant, educator, editor, author, and industry activist.

Beall entered the plastics industry after receiving his bachelor of science degree from Bradley Univ. in 1957. As an engineer in the research division of Abbott Labs. from 1958 to 1968, he developed medical devices, receiving 12 patents. He obtained 23 more, for medical and other products, while operating his own company Glenn Beall Engineering, Inc. from 1968 to 1993. In 1993 he formed his present company, Glenn Beall Plastics, Ltd., in Libertyville.

Beall

In 1993, Beall received the Award for Outstanding Achievement in Plastics Education from the Society of Plastics Engineers (SPE), which cited his work as an instructor on design and other aspects of technology. This work continues. Beall has lectured for SPE, the Society of Manufacturing Engineers (SME), the Association of Rotational Molders (ARM), and other associations; at eight colleges, and at seven companies. It is estimated that he has conducted over 650 seminars for more than 28,000 people.

Beall has served as an editorial advisor for plastics engineering handbooks and textbooks, was the design editor for "Plastics Design Forum" magazine for 14 years, and serves as contributing editor for "Injection Molding" and "Kunststoffe" magazines. He has published more than 50 technical papers and articles.

Beall has also been a proponent of rotational molding. He joined ARM in 1980 and has played an important role in disseminating information about his growing method of processing plastics.

Since joining SPE in 1960 and the Society of Plastics Industry (SPI) in 1969, Beall has been continuously active in both, holding numerous regional and national positions as board member, officer, or committee chairperson, as well as serving often as committee member, conference speaker, or competition judge.

In 1985, Beall was made a Fellow of SPE and was elected distinguished member in 1990; in 1995, SPE named its International Product Design Award in his honor.

Beall and his wife, Pasty, live in Gurnee.

Today's Manufactured Home Is Waiting For You

With the cost of site-built housing continuing to rise, more Illinoisans are choosing to own a modern manufactured home. Today's manufactured homes are built with solid construction and offer a variety of floor plans, amenities and exterior designs to meet the housing needs that home buyers want. If you are thinking of purchasing a home, but are faced with the high cost of site-built housing, think about a manufactured home. You will discover that the dream home you have been waiting for is a modern manufactured home. For more information on manufactured housing, call the Illinois Manufactured Housing Association at 1-800-252-9495.

Time

Covey's book "The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People." Covey suggests that you focus on the result you desire, and work toward that end. In other words, decide what you want, then go get it.

• Prioritize your tasks. This is the most important lesson on getting things done I have ever learned. Set aside adequate time for selecting the most important tasks to do. Remember, the results of these tasks are critical to your success.

• Know when you do your best work. If you are a morning person, tackle those tough jobs first. If you're asleep until noon—even when you're at work—use your afternoon "prime time" to work on high-priority tasks.

• Hustle while you wait. Always keep a little work handy to do while you're waiting. I often write at the doctor's office, in airports and while on hold on the phone. It takes a little thought, but those extra minutes can increase your productivity.

• Take a break and play. Finally, make your day a mix of what must be done (highest priorities) and what you want to do (fun).

Reward yourself for the completion of a difficult project with some time for fun. The fast track to burnout is all work and no play.

NEVER FAIL NOVENA May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised, adored and glorified throughout the whole world, now and forever. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I put my trust in You. Holy Mary, Mother of Jesus, pray for me. St. Theresa, child of Jesus, pray for me. St. Jude, Helper of Hopeless cases, pray for me and grant this favor I ask. Say this prayer 9 times a day for 9 days and publish. D.M.B.

O, HOLY ST. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracle, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, Faithful Intercessor of all who invoke You, special patronage in time of need. To You I have recourse from the depth of my heart, and humbly beg to who God has given such power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make Your name known and cause You to be invoked. Say 3 Our Father's, 3 Hail Mary's and Glory's for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This Novena has never been known to fail. P.K.W.

SHAMMARELLO

The admirable exterior of the Shammarello, lap siding with handsome brick trim, is a perfect showcase for a peerless floor design. The Shammarello spreads 2207 square feet of open living space over a two-story plan that includes many features desired by today's home buying public. Economical to build, this home design would be ideal for a family with older children or aging parents as part of the household.

The vaulted entry leads directly into a large skylit living room. The vaulted ceiling, open to the second floor, maximizes the spacious feeling that is evident throughout the home. A corner fireplace warms the entire area. A door accesses the back deck. The adjacent walk-through kitchen, also open to the upper level, boasts an eating bar, garden window, double ovens, cooktop/grill and a trash compactor. The dining room, close to the kitchen for easy serving, has stately columns on one side and a graceful arch opposite to create the perfect setting for an enjoyable meal.

The isolated master suite is loaded with amenities. They include personal access to the back deck, a roomy walk-in closet, window seat, bookshelves and private skylit bathroom with twin basins. There is also an isolated guest bedroom on this level with a bathroom and linen storage nearby.

A substantial utility room with broom closet, counter and laundry chute conveniently opens to the two-car garage. Here you have a recycling center and a recessed shop with built-in workbench. The do-it-yourself enthusiast in the house will really appreciate this feature.

The second floor has a generous office/library combination. There are bookshelves and plenty of room for a PC and other office equipment. Sturdy railing is on two sides of the office and allows you to check on the action below. Two good-sized bedrooms and a full bathroom complete the top floor design. The slightly larger front bedroom has a built-in desk.

For a study kit of the SHAMMARELLO (336-032LP60), send $10.00, to Landmark Designs, 33127 Saginaw Rd. E., Cottage Grove, OR 97424 (Be sure to specify plan name & number). For a collection of plan books featuring our most popular home plans, send $20 to Landmark, or call 1-800-562-1151.
